

SANK TO HIS DEATH IN THE ICY WATERS

Towboat Deck Hand Slipped, Fell Into the Water
and Was Instantly Drowned
in a Deep Hole.

ACCIDENT HAPPENED NEAR WELLSVILLE TODAY

While in the act of passing coal in a wheelbarrow from a fuel flat to the firebox of the towboat T. M. Pfeil, which was plying in the Ohio river a mile on this side of Wellsville toward Pittsburg this morning, an unknown deckhand slipped on an icy plank and before he could save himself or others could give assistance he fell overboard and sank immediately to the bottom of the river.

A moment after the accident the boat was stopped and every deckhand aboard was set to work dragging the river for the unfortunate man's body, but to no avail. He had sunk in one of the deepest holes in the river, which is deeper than ever now as the result of the decided rise. The search was continued for more than an hour, after which the captain gave up hopes and ordered the crew to cease the search. The towboat by this time had floated back to Wellsville and the river men around the ferry landing were notified of the accident with instructions to keep a watchful eye for any floating body.

Having performed his duty at that point the captain had the boat started on its trip up the river. When it reached this city he came ashore and going to the office of Squire McCarron, according to the marine law, swore to an affidavit of how the man met his death. The document will be forwarded to the United States authorities at Wheeling.

The captain stated that the drowned man was about 25 years of age, one of the best workmen that he had on the boat, and that he shipped February 2 at Pittsburg to make the trip to Cincinnati and return. He was not talkative and had not given his name or any of his history to any of his associate laborers.

PROMINENT PEOPLE IN ATTENDANCE

State Treasurer I. B. Cameron And Wife Agreeably Entertained Friends.

Columbus, February 16.—(Special.)—Hon. and Mrs. I. B. Cameron on Saturday evening very pleasantly entertained a party of friends at their pretty home on Neil avenue, this city. Military euche was played and refreshments were served. The residence was tastefully decorated with flags, bunting and portraits of celebrated Americans, notably George and Martha Washington, Garfield, McKinley and others.

Hon. Lewis C. Laylin, secretary of state, and Mrs. Laylin; Hon. Joseph Blackburn, state dairy and food commissioner, and Mrs. Blackburn, and Hon. H. M. Daugherty, who was a candidate for governor in the convention which nominated Judge Nash, and Mrs. Daugherty were among the guests present.

It was one of the most delightful social functions of the season.

PAINFULLY BURNED

Mrs. John Seanor, of West Market Street, the Victim of Blazing Gasoline.

Mrs. John Seanor, West Market street, met with a very painful accident Saturday evening while at work in the kitchen at her home. She had poured a quantity of gasoline in a bucket containing hot water, and in some unexplainable way the gasoline ignited.

Mrs. Seanor was painfully burned about the face and arms, but her face was saved from injury by the fact that she was looking in another direction when the flames sprang up. A heavy shawl about her head protected her hair. Dr. Ogden was called and dressed her injuries.

HALL CAINE IN HIS STUDY.

This picture, which shows the famous Manx novelist and playwright in his study, was made from a recent photograph. Hall Caine is a hard worker, but while he is putting the finishing touches to a new novel or laying out the scenario of a play he makes himself as comfortable as possible. He is one of the most fortunate literary men living. Each one of his stories does double duty. It has a great sale in book form and then the author turns it into a play and usually scores an immense success. As a novelist and dramatist he probably makes more money than any other literary man of today.

FOUND HELPLESS AND BLEEDING

Levi Burrows Believed to Have Been Brutally
Assaulted and Robbed.

With blood oozing from numerous wounds inflicted on his face and head and in an unconscious condition Levi Burrows, employed as an oddman at the D. E. McNicol pottery, was found lying motionless over the hill near the brewery at an early hour Saturday evening.

A member of the Bailey household living nearby heard the man scream and saw him when he fell backward over the embankment. She immediately summoned the police and Officers Woods and Betteridge answered. They had difficulty in reviving the prostrate man and were unable to get a statement out of him as to how his accident occurred. They did not argue this point long, however, as he was in a bad shape and hurried him to the city hall, where he was placed in the women's apartment and Dr. Ogden was called. The wounds were of a serious nature and considerable time was consumed in dressing the injuries.

He had sufficiently recovered yesterday morning to talk of his terrible experience, and at first stated that he had been held up by two robust men they attacking him from the rear, robbing him of all his money and then knocking him over the hill. An hour or so later he denied the first story, stating that he was simply drunk and fell over the embankment as the result of awkwardness.

Why his stories should conflict is not known. He evidently has some reason for making the retraction. It is believed that his first story was the correct one. It is substantiated by a Miss Bailey, who says that she saw two men knock him down and commit the robbery. It was one of the most brutal that has come to the notice of the police in months, and an especial effort will be made to apprehend the guilty ones.

PUBLIC BUILDING SITE FOR EAST LIVERPOOL

A Bill Introduced Appropriating $25,000 for the Proposed Purchase.

Washington, February 16.—(Special.)—Representative Mercer, chairman of the committee on public buildings and grounds, on Saturday introduced a bill authorizing $6,000,000 for new buildings, etc. East Liverpool under this bill gets a $25,000 appropriation for purchase of site.

The bill cuts down Representative Taylor's proposed appropriation for the purpose, which was $30,000. Having been favorably recommended it will probably pass. An option has been taken for $30,000 on the William Brunt property on Broadway, which was considered a most desirable site. Should it be taken, it would be necessary to secure an additional appropriation or make up the other $5,000 in some other way.

LOCAL POLICE AID IS MUCH DESIRED

Italian Shooter from Steubenville Thought to Have Come This Way.

The local police and those at Wellsville have been notified by Steubenville officers to be on the lookout for Fredrico Deangelo, who, it is alleged, fired the pistol shot that resulted in the serious injury of John Loviche and the probably fatal injury to Tony Pece. The latter is lying at the point of death and his attending physicians say that only by the hand of Providence can he recover.

The shooting occurred Friday morning on one of the principal streets of Steubenville, and it is said was done without the least provocation, Deangelo being crazed by an over-indulgence in whisky. Immediately after the exciting affair the police of that city started on a search for the son of Italy, but he had made good his escape. He was traced a few miles above Steubenville Saturday by Marshal Scott and others, but when near Toronto the trail was lost. He having friends in Wellsville and this city, it is believed that he is in hiding in this vicinity.

The description of the man is lacking in every detail, and it will be only by the efforts and assistance of his Italian brothers that he will ever be located. He does not speak English and knows very little of the American ways, except the use of fire arms and the destruction of booze.

THE EXISTENCE OF HEAVEN AND HELL

One As Certain As the Other If
We Believe the Words of the Bible.

INDIVIDUALS MUST CHOOSE

Where They Will Spend Eternity.
A Strikingly Strong and Able Sermon Preached by Dr. Lloyd at St. Stephen's Church.

St. Stephen's Episcopal church has never accommodated a more appreciative or more highly pleased audience than that which assembled last evening to hear Rev. Dr. Lloyd, of Cleveland, the eminent divine who during the past week conducted as missionary the parochial mission services, and who, as on his visit to this city four years ago, has drawn the members of the church into close relationship and made himself beloved by all.

The last service of which the mission will have charge will be held this evening at the usual hour, and it will be with a feeling of deepest regret that the congregation tell him goodbye. Dr. Lloyd's personal magnetism, his easy manner in approaching one and his words, always of sympathy and instructiveness, have elicited for him high regard and esteem.

The subject chosen for last evening's service was one of more than usual interest. It is one that leads to a warm debate every time that it is presented. There are few who have certain knowledge of the subject, and the minister freely acknowledged that his versions were taken solely from the bible, the book which stands before the people as the true doctrine of God. The conclusions drawn from the teachings of God's word on the subject were forcible and will leave a deep impression on all who heard them. With an eloquence inspired only by his increased love for the members of the church, Dr. Lloyd on "Heaven and Hell, Where They Are and Who Go There," said in part:

"The present age is cursed with sentimentality. It makes us weak, to the minds of the conservative and educated it is not only disgusting but sickening. It is a bad sign. A murderer or a suicide receiving the admiration of the people. Just think what it means. I pronounce such display of sentiment not good for the race. Sentiment believes in heaven, it bubbles over with it, but it does not believe in hell. Those possessed of this sentiment which is cursing the nation will sit and listen to talk of heaven but not one word about hell will they tolerate. Now the evidence that we have is conclusive; that there is a hell as there is a heaven. Why then should we allow ourselves to believe in the one and discard the other?

"Hell is agony indestructible. It is pain, it is fire, it is death and more. It reaches many times beyond our most liberal determinations as to its awfulness. In it is everlasting punishment. What is hell? We understand that it is a place created for the devil and his angels. God took pity on them when they were cast from heaven and prepared a place for them. It is a bottomless pit, utter darkness, a place where fire is not quenched, a place where are heard weeping, wailing and the gnashing of teeth. This description is given us by God and the words are not alone of a fanatical preacher.

"Believing in God as we do, why do we not believe that hell is all that the above describes? The agony of hell is eternally intolerable. Yes, there is a hell, an awful hell, designed by the devil and his angels for eternal misery. Where is it? I don't know. There are, however, places on the earth that won't miss the description far. Who will go to hell? Anybody who so chooses. They will go who finally and willfully reject Christ. Satan was cast out because he rebelled against God. The same fate awaits the human race. When we once become convinced and do not accept God all that is necessary for us to land in the darkness of hell is to continue on the same path.

"Hell is for cowards, for the unclean, for murderers, the untruthful the indifferent, for the willful sinners. Where such people as those go I would advise you not to go. Heaven is more magnificent than words can express. We are told of its rivers, trees, fruits, birds, all described so

BROTHER-IN-LAW CHARGES PRETTY WELLSVILLE GIRL WITH STEALING FROM HIM

W. H. Moore Asks Police Aid in Locating Miss Elizabeth Rolley, Accused of Taking $50.

If the allegations made by her brother-in-law are true Miss Elizabeth Rolley, one of Wellsville's winsome and prettiest young ladies, has committed an act which her numerous friends and acquaintances will deeply deplore and which will land her in the hands of the police at Pittsburg.

According to the relative, W. H. Moore, a railroad engineer, of Steubenville street, Wellsville, she on Friday evening stole from him money and other valuables amounting to $50 and has not been seen since by Wellsville people. Officer McDermott was appealed to by Mr. Moore to make a search in this city for her and it was but a short time before the officer was on the right trail. He found that she had been in East Liverpool Friday night and that she had left the city

Saturday morning for Pittsburg. Mr. Moore was given the result of the officer's findings and he at once telephoned the police at Pittsburg asking them to place her under arrest. They consented to search for her, but up to noon today no word had been received of success.

Mr. Moore was in the city again this afternoon and at mayor's office stated that he was going after the girl, thinking he knows where she is staying. She has an aunt in Pittsburg and more than likely she will be found with her. The local officers have been requested to arrest and lock her up if seen here.

In society circles in Wellsville, Miss Rolley was of high standing and her alleged actions cannot be accounted for by those who know her.

PATROL WAGON WAS ON THE CO

MAYOR DAVIDSON HAD A MOTLEY CROWD BEFORE HIM.

Row in Gypsy Camp Varies the Usual Monotonous Story of Drunks.

There was an air of business in police circles Saturday night and Sunday. For the first time in weeks the patrol wagon was busy and as a result Mayor Davidson had a fair-sized lineup before him today. Gypsy fortune tellers and horse traders arrived in the city the first of last week, locating in the West End, near the ball park. They had little trouble in carrying out their games among the residents, and Saturday evening decided to jollify over the success.

John Morgan and his son Joseph, it seems, were the most jubilant and made the most noise. They filled up in uptown saloons and when they arrived at camp turned the quietude into an old-time Indian war dance. While in the midst of their jollifications Officers Dunn and Woods appeared on the scene and escorted the ringleaders to the city hall. They were fined $6.00.

William Hanna was drunk. He tried in vain to escape the ever-watchful eye of Officer Aufderheide. The officer detected him as he was attempting to place a tree in front of him and in a short time had him at the city jail. He paid a fine of $1 and costs.

Thomas Creedon was nabbed by Officer Woods. He was making an effort to carry booze and soon discovered that he was a miserable failure at performing such a feat. He also paid $5.00.

Officer McDermott landed William Poser. William does not get drunk very often and upon this occasion would not have done so had they not come so thick and fast that he lost all control of himself. His assessment was the usual one.

EAST LIVERPOOL MEN ON THE PACIFIC COAST

A Number of Street Car Operatives from Here Now Located at Los Angeles.

California seems to offer irresistible attractions for many East Liverpool people, particularly the street car operatives and in the past few months quite a number have gone to this far western state to make if their home. Charles Kontner, president of the local street car operatives' union, recently received a letter from one of the boys that gave some interesting facts about the East Liverpool colony.

Morrison Smith is a motorman on the Pasadena and Los Angeles traction line and David Brown is on the run with him as a conductor. Tom Atkinson is a motorman on the line in Los Angeles. Ira Goddard is a motorman on one of the San Francisco lines.

All are well pleased with the country and their situations, and have no thoughts of returning to Ohio.

Her Purse Snatched From Her Hand as She Walked Along the Street.

A TERRIFYING EXPERIENCE

Which Was Speedily Reported to the Police—They Believe They Have a Clue to the Identity of the Guilty Person.

While hurriedly walking along Jackson street shortly before 9 o'clock on Saturday evening a daughter of John C. Owens, of Sixth street, was made the victim of a holdup, the robber jumping suddenly from the darkness in an alley near the home of S. J. Cripps, seizing the young girl with one hand, grabbing her purse and making good his escape before the full realization of what had happened occurred to her.

Badly frightened, she was unable to make an outcry and the daring individual was out of sight without the least interference. Upon regaining her presence of mind the girl hastened to central police station and told her story. Officers Dawson and Maloney immediately set out in search of the man who was described as being of medium height, wearing a black hat and a light overcoat. In the search they were unsuccessful but think they have the right man under suspicion. The amount of money stolen from Miss Owens was something over $9.

CAMERON ONE OF THE COMPANY

State Treasurer Among the Incorporators of a New Industrial Enterprise.

A REMARKABLE REVIVAL

Series of Meetings at Marion, Conducted By Major Cole, Well Known in This City, Resulted in 1,200 Conversions.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, February 16. — State Treasurer I. B. Cameron is one of the incorporators of the Columbus Chain works, which took out a charter under the laws of Delaware Friday, with $100,000 capital stock. The company has been engaged in business in this city for over two years and the action in incorporating is merely for the purpose of effecting a reorganization, with no material change in the operation of the plant. The company has been unusually busy and has an abundance of orders booked.

The revival conducted under the direction of Major J. H. Cole, at Marion, just brought to a close, is said to have been the most wonderful ever held in the state. Major Cole conducted a revival in East Liverpool several years ago with great success, hundreds professing conversion at the time. The Marion meetings started in December and lasted continuously for 68 days during which time there were over 1,200 conversions. Meetings were held in churches, stores, factories, shops, offices, in fact wherever a few men and women could gather. Major Cole is a speaker of great power. His wife and daughter aid him in revival work. His East Liverpool meetings were probably the most successful of the kind ever held in the city.

The receipts of the office of the secretary of state during the quarter ending Saturday were the heaviest in the history of the department, aggregating $91,841.12, exclusive of Willis law fees. The fees collected by the state insurance commissioner for the same quarter amounted to $337,438.11, as compared with $136,610.82 for the same quarter last year. The net cash balance in the state treasury Saturday night was $4,534,391.09, which breaks all records.

Dan R. Hanna, son of Senator Hanna, and John H. Winters, a local coal man, admitted in this city they assaulted Hon. W. G. Caldwell, a member of the West Virginia legislature at Charleston, that state, but claimed they were provoked to it by the latter's unbearable abuse. Hanna and Winters hailed a cab and Caldwell, who was inside, protested against them entering it and poured out a torrent of abuse, they declare, which they resented in the manner mentioned.

Officer McDermott was appealed to by Mr. Moore to make a search in this city for her and it was but a short time before the officer was on the right trail. He found that she had been in East Liverpool Friday night and that she had left the city

Saturday morning for Pittsburg. Mr. Moore was given the result of the officer's findings and he at once telephoned the police at Pittsburg asking them to place her under arrest. They consented to search for her, but up to noon today no word had been received of success.

Mr. Moore was in the city again this afternoon and at mayor's office stated that he was going after the girl, thinking he knows where she is staying. She has an aunt in Pittsburg and more than likely she will be found with her. The local officers have been requested to arrest and lock her up if seen here.

In society circles in Wellsville, Miss Rolley was of high standing and her alleged actions cannot be accounted for by those who know her.

PATROL WAGON WAS ON THE GO

MAYOR DAVIDSON HAD A MOTLEY

Row in Gypsy Camp Varies the Usual
Monotonous Story of Drunks.

There was an air of business in police circles Saturday night and Sunday. For the first time in weeks the patrol wagon was busy and as a result Mayor Davidson had a fair-sized lineup before him today. Gypsy fortune tellers and horse traders arrived in the city the first of last week, locating in the West End, near the ball park. They had little trouble in carrying out their games among the residents, and Saturday evening decided to jollyify over the success.

John Morgan and his son Joseph, it seems, were the most jubilant and made the most noise. They filled up in uptown saloons and when they arrived at camp turned the quietude into an old-time Indian war dance. While in the midst of their jollifications Officers Dunn and Woods appeared on the scene and escorted the ringleaders to the city hall. They were fined $5.00. William Hanna was drunk. He tried in vain to escape the ever-watchful eye of Officer Aufderheide. The officer detected him as he was attempting to place a tree in front of him and in a short time had him at the city jail. He paid a fine of $1 and costs.

Thomas Creedon was nabbed by Officer Woods. He was making an effort to carry booze and soon discovered that he was a miserable failure at performing such a feat. He also paid $5.00.

Officer McDermott landed William Poser. William does not get drunk very often and upon this occasion would not have done so had they not come so thick and fast that he lost all control of himself. His assessment was the usual one.

Cripps, seizing the young girl with one hand, grabbing her purse and making good his escape before the full realization of what had happened occurred to her.

Badly frightened, she was unable to make an outcry and the daring individual was out of sight without the least interference. Upon regaining her presence of mind the girl hastened to central police station and told her story. Officers Dawson and Mahoney immediately set out in search of the man who was described as being of medium height, wearing a black hat and a light overcoat. In the search they were unsuccessful but think they have the right man under suspicion. The amount of money stolen from Miss Owens was something over $9.

SANK TO HIS DEATH IN THE ICY WATERS

Towboat Deck Hand Slipped, Fell Into the Water
and Was Instantly Drowned
in a Deep Hole.

ACCIDENT HAPPENED NEAR WELLSVILLE TODAY

While in the act of passing coal in a wheelbarrow from a fuel flat to the firebox of the towboat T. M. Pfeil, which was plying in the Ohio river a mile on this side of Wellsville toward Pittsburg this morning, an unknown deckhand slipped on an icy plank and before he could save himself or others could give assistance he fell overboard and sank immediately to the bottom of the river.

A moment after the accident the boat was stopped and every deckhand aboard was set to work dragging the river for the unfortunate man's body, but to no avail. He had sunk in one of the deepest holes in the river, which is deeper than ever now as the result of the decided rise. The search was continued for more than an hour, after which the captain gave up hopes and ordered the crew to cease the search. The towboat by this time had floated back to Wellsville and the river men around the ferry landing were notified of the accident with instructions to keep a watchful eye for any floating body.

Having performed his duty at that point the captain had the boat started on its trip up the river. When it reached this city he came ashore and going to the office of Squire McCarron, according to the marine law, swore to an affidavit of how the man met his death. The document will be forwarded to the United States authorities at Wheeling.

The captain stated that the drowned man was about 25 years of age, one of the best workmen that he had on the boat, and that he shipped February 2 at Pittsburg to make the trip to Cincinnati and return. He was not talkative and had not given his name or any of his history to any of his associate laborers.

CAMERON ONE OF THE COMPANY

State Treasurer Among the Incorporators of a New Industrial Enterprise.

A REMARKABLE REVIVAL

Series of Meetings at Marion, Conducted By Major Cole, Well Known in This City, Resulted in 1,200 Conversions.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, February 16. — State Treasurer I. B. Cameron is one of the incorporators of the Columbus Chain works, which took out a charter under the laws of Delaware Friday, with $100,000 capital stock. The company has been engaged in business in this city for over two years and the action in incorporating is merely for the purpose of effecting a reorganization, with no material change in the operation of the plant. The company has been unusually busy and has an abundance of orders booked.

The revival conducted under the direction of Major J. H. Cole, at Marion, just brought to a close, is said to have been the most wonderful ever held in the state. Major Cole conducted a revival in East Liverpool several years ago with great success, hundreds professing conversion at the time. The Marion meetings started in December and lasted continuously for 68 days during which time there were over 1,200 conversions. Meetings were held in churches, stores, factories, shops, offices, in fact wherever a few men and women could gather. Major Cole is a speaker of great power. His wife and daughter aid him in revival work. His East Liverpool meetings were probably the most successful of the kind ever held in the city.

The receipts of the office of the secretary of state during the quarter ending Saturday were the heaviest in the history of the department, aggregating $91,841.12, exclusive of Willis law fees. The fees collected by the state insurance commissioner for the same quarter amounted to $337,438.11, as compared with $136,610.82 for the same quarter last year. The net cash balance in the state treasury Saturday night was $4,534,391.69, which breaks all records.

Dan R. Hanna, son of Senator Hanna, and John H. Winters, a local coal man, admitted in this city they assaulted Hon. W. G. Caldwell, a member of the West Virginia legislature at Charleston, that state, but claimed they were provoked to it by the latter's unbearable abuse. Hanna and Winters hailed a cab and Caldwell, who was inside, protested against them entering it and poured out a torrent of abuse, they declare, which they resented in the manner mentioned.

Prof. E. I. Bosworth, of Oberlin college, has been elected president of the Anti-Saloon league.

Hon. Horace Ankeney today took charge of the department of the state dairy and food commission as successor to Hon. Joseph Blackburn, who has been its head during the past six years.

John H. Hinkle, mayor of Columbus has announced his candidacy for a second term. He is a Democrat.

PROMINENT PEOPLE IN ATTENDANCE

State Treasurer I. B. Cameron And Wife Agreeably Entertained Friends.

Columbus, February 16. — (Special.) — Hon. and Mrs. I. B. Cameron on Saturday evening very pleasantly entertained a party of friends at their pretty home on Neil avenue, this city. Military eulchre was played and refreshments were served. The residence was tastefully decorated with flags, bunting and portraits of celebrated Americans, notably George and Martha Washington, Garfield, McKinley and others.

Hon. Lewis C. Laylin, secretary of state, and Mrs. Laylin; Hon. Joseph Blackburn, state dairy and food commissioner, and Mrs. Blackburn, and Hon. H. M. Daugherty, who was a candidate for governor in the convention which nominated Judge Nash, and Mrs. Daugherty were among the guests present.

It was one of the most delightful social functions of the season.

PAINFULLY BURNED

Mrs. John Seanor, of West Market Street, the Victim of Blazing Gasoline.

Mrs. John Seanor, West Market street, met with a very painful accident Saturday evening while at work in the kitchen at her home. She had poured a quantity of gasoline in a bucket containing hot water, and in some unexplainable way the gasoline ignited.

Mrs. Seanor was painfully burned about the face and arms, but her face was saved from injury by the fact that she was looking in another direction when the flames sprang up. A heavy shawl about her head protected her hair. Dr. Ogden was called and dressed her injuries.

HALL CAINE IN HIS STUDY.

This picture, which shows the famous Manx novelist and playwright in his study, was made from a recent photograph. Hall Caine is a hard worker, but while he is putting the finishing touches to a new novel or laying out the scenario of a play he makes himself as comfortable as possible. He is one of the most fortunate literary men living. Each one of his stories does double duty. It has a great sale in book form and then the author turns it into a play and usually scores an immense success. As novelist and dramatist he probably makes more money than any other literary man of today.

FOUND HELPLESS AND BLEEDING

Levi Burrows Believed to Have Been Brutally
Assaulted and Robbed.

With blood oozing from numerous wounds inflicted on his face and head and in an unconscious condition Levi Burrows, employed as an oddman at the D. E. McNicol pottery, was found lying motionless over the hill near the brewery at an early hour Saturday evening.

A member of the Bailey household living nearby heard the man scream and saw him when he fell backward over the embankment. She immediately summoned the police and Officers Woods and Betteridge answered. They had difficulty in reviving the prostrate man and were unable to get a statement out of him as to how his accident occurred. They did not argue this point long, however, as he was in a bad shape and hurried him to the city hall, where he was placed in the women's apartment and Dr. Ogden was called. The wounds were of a serious nature and considerable time was consumed in dressing the injuries. He had sufficiently recovered yesterday morning to talk of his terrible experience, and at first stated that he had been held up by two robust men they attacking him from the rear, robbing him of all his money and then knocking him over the hill. An hour or so later he denied the first story, stating that he was simply drunk and fell over the embankment as the result of awkwardness.

Why his stories should conflict is not known. He evidently has some reason for making the retraction. It is believed that his first story was the correct one. It is substantiated by a Miss Bailey, who says that she saw two men knock him down and commit the robbery. It was one of the most brutal that has come to the notice of the police in months, and an especial effort will be made to apprehend the guilty ones.

PUBLIC BUILDING SITE FOR EAST LIVERPOOL

A Bill Introduced Appropriating $25,000 for the Proposed Purchase.

Washington, February 16. — (Special.) — Representative Mercer, chairman of the committee on public buildings and grounds, on Saturday introduced a bill authorizing $6,000,000 for new buildings, etc. East Liverpool under this bill gets a $25,000 appropriation for purchase of site.

The bill cuts down Representative Taylor's proposed appropriation for the purpose, which was $20,000. Having been favorably recommended it will probably pass. An option has been taken for $30,000 on the William Brunt property on Broadway, which was considered a most desirable site. Should it be taken, it would be necessary to secure an additional appropriation or make up the other $5,000 in some other way.

DECLARED A BANKRUPT

S. E. Strickline, of this city, has filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy. The assets are placed at $500 and the liabilities $11,024.93. He has been declared a bankrupt by C. D. LOCAL POLICE AID IS MUCH DESIRED

Italian Shooter from Steubenville Thought to Have Come This Way.

The local police and those at Wellsville have been notified by Steubenville officers to be on the lookout for Fred- erico Deangelo, who, it is alleged, fired the pistol shot that resulted in the serious injury of John Loviche and the probably fatal injury to Tony Pece. The latter is lying at the point of death and his attending physicians say that only by the hand of Providence can he recover.

The shooting occurred Friday morning on one of the principal streets of Steubenville, and it is said was done without the least provocation, Deangelo being crazed by an over-indulgence in whisky. Immediately after the exciting affair the police of that city started on a search for the son of Italy, but he had made good his escape. He was traced a few miles above Steubenville Saturday by Marshal Scott and others, but when near Toronto the trail was lost. He having friends in Wellsville and this city, it is believed that he is in hiding in this vicinity.

The description of the man is lacking in every detail, and it will be only by the efforts and assistance of his Italian brothers that he will ever be located. He does not speak English and knows very little of the American ways, except the use of fire arms and the destruction of booze.

THE EXISTENCE OF HEAVEN AND HELL

One As Certain As the Other If We Believe the Words of the Bible.

INDIVIDUALS MUST CHOOSE

Where They Will Spend Eternity. A Strikingly Strong and Able Sermon Preached by Dr. Lloyd at St. Stephen's Church.

St. Stephen's Episcopal church has never accommodated a more appreciative or more highly pleased audience than that which assembled last evening to hear Rev. Dr. Lloyd, of Cleveland, the eminent divine who during the past week conducted as missionary the parochial mission services, and who, as on his visit to this city four years ago, has drawn the members of the church into close relationship and made himself beloved by all.

The last service of which the missioner will have charge will be held this evening at the usual hour, and it will be with a feeling of deepest regret that the congregation tell him goodbye. Dr. Lloyd's personal magnetism, his easy manner in approaching one and his words, always of sympathy and instructiveness, have elicited for him high regard and esteem.

The subject chosen for last evening's service was one of more than usual interest. It is one that leads to a warm debate every time that it is presented. There are few who have certain knowledge of the subject, and the missioner freely acknowledged that his versions were taken solely from the bible, the book which stands before the people as the true doctrine of God. The conclusions drawn from the teachings of God's word on the subject were forcible and will leave a deep impression on all who heard them. With an eloquence inspired only by his increased love for the members of the church, Dr. Lloyd on "Heaven and Hell, Where They Are and Who Go There," said in part:

"The present age is cursed with sentimentality. It makes us weak, to the minds of the conservative and educated it is not only disgusting but sickening. It is a bad sign. A murderer or a suicide receiving the admiration of the people. Just think what it means. I pronounce such display of sentiment not good for the race. Sentiment believes in heaven, it bubbles over with it, but it does not believe in hell. Those possessed of this sentiment which is cursing the nation will sit and listen to talk of heaven but not one word about hell will they tolerate. Now the evidence that we have is as conclusive that there is a hell as that there is a heaven. Why then should we allow ourselves to believe in the one and discard the other?

"Hell is agony indestructible. It is pain, it is fire, it is death and more. It reaches many times beyond our most liberal determinations as to its awfulness. In it is everlasting punishment. What is hell? We understand that it is a place created for the devil and his angels. God took pity on them when they were cast from heaven and prepared a place for them. It is a bottomless pit, utter darkness, a place where fire is not quenched, a place where are heard weeping, wailing and the gnashing of teeth. This description is given us by God and the words are not alone of a fanatical preacher.

"Believing in God as we do, why do we not believe that hell is all that the above describes? The agony of hell is eternally intolerable. Yes, there is a hell, an awful hell, designed by the devil and his angels for eternal misery. Where is it? I don't know. There are, however, places on the earth that won't miss the description far. Who will go to hell? Anybody who so chooses. They will go who finally and willfully reject Christ. Satan was cast out because he rebelled against God. The same fate awaits the human race. When we once become convinced and do not accept God all that is necessary for us to land in the darkness of hades is to continue on the same path.

"Hell is for cowards, for the unclean, for murderers, the untruthful, the indifferent, for the willful sinners. Where such people as those go I would advise you not to go. Heaven is more magnificent than words can express. We are told of its rivers, trees, fruits, birds, all described so

W. H. Moore Asks Police Aid in Locating Miss Elizabeth Rolley, Accused of Taking $50.

If the allegations made by her brother-in-law are true Miss Elizabeth Rolley, one of Wellsville's winsome and prettiest young ladies, has committed an act which her numerous friends and acquaintances will deeply deplore and which will land her in the hands of the police at Pittsburg.

According to the relative W. H. Moore, a railroad engineer, of Steubenville street, Wellsville, she on Friday evening stole from him money and other valuables amounting to $50 and has not been seen since by Wellsville people. News and Notes About The Potteries

MARBLE EFFECTS.

Dissolve gum tragacanth in water until the solution is of the consistency of thick syrup. This will require from three to four days. Add to it sufficient water to reduce the specific gravity to 1.062. Next prepare a decoction of three-quarters of an ounce of the ordinary flaxseed in one gallon of water and mix one part of this decoction with five parts of the tragacanth solution. By reason of the high gravity of the colors to be used, it is necessary to add one pound of a very thin mixture of china clay and water to each pound of the above mixture. Without this precaution the colors employed would not float on the surface of the preparation, says the London Pottery Gazette.

The under-glaze colors, which have been triturated with water and kept in duly labelled jars, are now mixed with beef gall, which, to guard against spoiling, has had a little carbolic acid added, and are then spattered by means of a brush, preferably one with open bristles, on the surface of the mixture. Marble veins will immediately be formed, which can, if desired, be worked into a variety of combinations by stirring with a comb. The biscuit is now dipped in this solution, afterward slightly washed, and the colors then hardened on in the kiln, when it is ready for the dipper. Such portions as may be desired white can be so retained by painting over with a clay and gum solution, which is after wards washed off. Should it be desired to marble glass pieces, the colors must be mixed with oil before the spattering on, and the ware given a coat of grounding oil. Strikingly beautiful effects can be produced with a little care and attention.

THE ISOLATED PLANTS.

The Logan (O.) Pottery company is now making ware and expects to have the first kiln out within the next week or two. It will make a full line of stoneware and specialties and have a capacity of two 25 kilns, using natural gas for fuel throughout.

There is some talk of a new pottery being erected at New Straitsville, O., and the citizens of that town are trying to raise funds with which to build and operate the plant. The Straitsville bank is promoting the deal. The plant will have a capacity of two kilns and will make stoneware.

The Crooksville China company is now running in full and has its first glaze ware through the kiln.

The new white ware pottery that has been talked of for Crooksville is at last a fact. The plant will have a capacity of six kilns and application has been made for the charter for the new company, which will have a capital stock of $100,000. People from the State Stoneware company are mainly interested.

The new pottery at Lancaster, O., is now in operation and will soon be running full in every department. It is operating only a part of the works at present.

MEETING TONIGHT.

The General Ware Pressers of Trenton will hold another meeting tonight at the potters' headquarters in the Ribsam building. This body is still but a temporary organization and it is very likely that tonight it will be made a permanent one. The new local which has recruited thus far most of the general ware pressers of Trenton, when permanently organized, will affiliate with the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters.

GONE TO ENGLAND.

Joseph Golding, one of the printers at the New Cumberland plant of the Union Pottery Company, left that city one day last week for New York. He will sail for England to-day and will go to the pottery district of Staffordshire.

A Prisoner in Her House.

Mrs. W. H. Lavha, of 1001 Agnes avenue, Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me a part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured. From this time on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will be in my house constantly." This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

beautifully. Splendor and every thing elegant far beyond the imagination are to be found there. The word of God says that it is paved with gold, the walls are of precious stones and the gates of pearls. Just think of a city on earth of such grandeur! The description that man can give of the place, cannot be compared with what it really is. It is far more beautiful, wider, broader and of a nobler sense than we can understand. In the Father's house are many mansions, we are taught.

"To heaven the path is long and narrow. To hell it is wide and many snares are open for us. You are left to make your choice. In which do you want to spend eternity?"

Special effort has been made to have the meeting tonight one of the most enjoyable of the mission. It will be a thanksgiving service. Music of a superior quality will be rendered. Rev. Dr. Lloyd will preside at the organ.

Mrs. Edwin Knowles will assist with a harp and the vested choir has prepared special selections. The missioner will sing two solos, entitled "Calvary" and "Nearer, My God, to Thee." At the conclusion of the services the members of the congregation who wish will adjourn to the parish building, where a farewell will be tendered the missioner, who leaves on the midnight train for his home in Cleveland.

ON MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

REV. J. G. REINARTZ CONDEMNS A PRESENT DAY EVIL.

Preachers Should Not Marry Couples
Who Have No Right to Be Wedded.

Rev. J. G. Reinartz announced last week that his subject at the English service at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church Sunday evening would be "Marriage, Divorce and Re-Marriage." The topic was of so much importance that the attendance was unusually large. The legal fraternity was especially well represented, and none were disappointed. The discourse was pronounced one of the finest ever given by the excellent preacher. In part he said:

"One of the most beautiful pictures in this world is a well regulated and happy Christian home. Christ, the Son of God, gave His sanction to married life, and adorned and beautified with His presence and first miracle one of the few remaining things of Eden's loveliness. On the family depends all social virtue and all good order. Christ began the establishment of His religion by the recognition of this, the oldest institution of God upon earth. His first annunciation of Himself as the Redeemer of the world was at a marriage. Christianity was inaugurated as the guardian and beautifier of the home. The Christian family is one of the most precious biblical images of heaven.

"Sin and unbelief have found room in human nature, have made much havoc with domestic peace—hence the subject.

"A legitimate divorce granted for the cause specified by our Lord, whilst it is a protest against the crime committed, and whilst it formally declares the marriage covenant dissolved, is much more a declaration of the innocence of the other party, and of his or her liberty to marry again.

"Mutual consent to separate and completely break up the marriage relation is not to be classified among malicious desertion and is to be condemned. Two persons may consent to be united in marriage, but they have no right to consent to separate when once united. Divorce granted on any other ground or grounds except those specified by our Lord and St. Paul are not to be recognized. Marriage with an other party in such cases is crime upon crime."

The union formed between husband and wife into one flesh is so mysterious and divine that He only who made it can rightfully dissolve it. Divorce does not sanction the separation of husband and wife. It simply formally declares that God's holy law has been violated; that the covenant has been violently broken; that a gross sin, a crime has been committed which it cannot undo and to which it must submit. It is a continual protest against the guilty party.

"Except for the crime of fornication the husband who puts away his wife and applies for and receives a divorce from the court, even if he does not marry another woman, is an adulterer

B. C. ANSLEY'S UNUSUAL OFFER

Sell Dr. Howard's Specific at Half-Price and Guarantee a Cure.

"It isn't often that I have faith enough in the medicine put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said B. C. Ansley to a News Review man who dropped into his store, "but I am glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that basis."

"The Dr. Howard Company, in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorizes me to sell their regular fifty cent bottles at half price, 25 cents, and, although I have sold a lot of it, and have guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory."

"One great advantage of this specific," he continued, "is its small dose and convenient form. There are sixty doses in a vial that can be carried in the vest pocket or purse, and every one has more medicinal power than a big pill or tablet or a tumbler of mineral water."

"I am still selling the specific at half-price, although I cannot tell how long I shall be able to do so, and any one who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion, or a general played out condition, ought to take advantage of this chance. You can tell your readers that if they are not satisfied with the specific they can come right back to my store and I will cheerfully refund their money."

and remains such until his wife dies. This divorce does not annul his marriage with his wife. He is still bound to her in the sight of God, and will be held responsible for the duties which he owes to her."

Speaking of engagements, Rev. Mr. Reinartz continued: "If two persons have been properly, lawfully and publicly engaged, their engagement is as binding, and the divine law applies to them with the same force as if the marriage had been publicly attested by the usual rite of the marriage ceremony."

"As divorces, whether frequent or not, are always evidence of the hardness of men's hearts, as they always presuppose sin and crime committed, and further, as they are fraught with much evil, every minister of the gospel ought to do his utmost to prevent them."

"By instructing the young and unmarried on the great importance of the subject of marriage and the choice of a partner in life by preaching on the sanctity, obligations and indissolubility of the marriage state by pointing out the sins and great evils and the disgrace always incident and connected with the case, when divorce became necessary. By encouraging the innocent party to forgive and remain with the guilty, if he or she repents and promises fidelity."

"A minister of the gospel should and must refuse to join in marriage those who have no right to marriage, and even those as to whose right he is in doubt. All runaway couples and those that seek notoriety by being married at street fairs, on railroad trains or on mountain tops must be spurned."

"Let us walk honestly, as in the day, not in rioting and drunkenness, not in clamoring and wantonness, not in strife and enjoining. But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh."

LESSONS DRAWN FROM PAUL'S LIFE

THE APOSTLE FAITHFULLY PREACHED TRUE RELIGION.

Salvation Through Christ the Only Way—Rev. C. G. Jordan's Sermon.

In spite of the inclement weather and the continued downpour of rain throughout the day the attendance at all services held yesterday at the First Presbyterian church was unusually large. At the beginning of the morning service Rev. Mr. Jordan, pastor of the church, stated that it would perhaps be a disappointment to many to know that Rev. McFadden had been unable to remain over Sunday, as he was compelled to return to Findlay in order that his own congregation would not be neglected. Rev. Mr. Jordan had hoped to have him stay until today, and had gone to some trouble in an effort to secure a substitute for Mr. McFadden at Findlay. The attempt was not successful and it was thought the Findlay divine might be induced to remain here anyhow, but a message was received late in the week that Mrs. McFadden, who was ill when her husband departed for this city, had grown worse, and it would be necessary for Rev. McFadden to return home at once.

Though he had but little time for preparation, Rev. Mr. Jordan preached an eloquent sermon, filled with sound logic and earnestness. For the scripture lesson the pastor read a part of the tenth chapter of St. John, and his topic was taken from Acts, the twenty-sixth chapter, twenty-seventh verse. In part he said:

"Paul was in prison, but he still continued to let his voice be heard. His life had been dedicated to the cause of Christianity, and he continued to preach the gospel no matter where he happened to be. He went among his fellows when they were about their regular duties, told them of his own experience and urged upon all the necessity of leading a Christian life. Paul was persecuted and arraigned for his loyalty to the Master, and though his life had been menaced he continued in his task, teaching not only the common people but kings as well. All men were alike to him. In prison and out of prison, in the fields and at the forge, he admonished friend and foe to take up the cause of Christianity."

Rev. Mr. Jordan impressed upon his listeners the truth that Paul preached the true religion, the resurrected Christ as the only way to salvation. While he was at the time condemned himself, he was, by his eloquence and extraordinary persuasive powers, leading men to condemn themselves. The speaker thought that without confession of faith there could not be a remission of sins, no pardon until Christ is acknowledged.

A man believes more than he is really conscious of. The old testament is the true road to knowledge, the foundation of all laws. To illustrate this point King Agrippa, to whom Paul spoke, was taken as an example. The latter asserted the king believed in the prophets, and to prove it the words of the ing were used when he said:

"Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian." When you believe the prophecy relative to the coming of Christ you are taking the old testament for authority, and are believing more than you are conscious of, so why hesitate to accept the whole truth.

A case was cited since the present series of meetings have been in progress where a Sunday school teacher had informed the pastor that 2 scholars were almost persuaded. Nothing should stand in the way. "I would to God that all of you who are out of Christ were not almost persuaded but absolutely so. You can't be saved by Christ until you give yourself to him. You must pray to him and the surrender must be unconditional. Are you going to do it?"

"Wherefore, therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess before my father which is in heaven."

As the speaker closed his sermon with this quotation the choir of 75 voices sang softly "Almost Persuaded" in a manner which deeply moved the entire congregation. A number remained after the service to confer with the session.

RELIABLE MEN ARE IN DEMAND

DR. PRATT'S LECTURE ON ONE OF THE NEEDS OF TODAY.

Moral Responsibility, Rather Than Intellectual Capacity, Required in the World's Work.

In spite of the rain and the dismal aspect of the weather the attendance at Rev. Dr. Pratt's lecture at the opera house yesterday afternoon was much larger than usual. The music, helped out by a full orchestra, was much more inspiring, and this with the eloquent discourse of the lecturer, made the afternoon one of spiritual enjoyment and instruction.

Two queries submitted through the question box were answered by the lecturer, the first of which was: "If a man is converted this winter, backslides during the summer, could he be converted again or would it be a renewal?" The lecturer stated the religious acceptance of this term, and that so often as a man commits sin, so often does he need, and can be converted. "What is the value of the altar?" was the other question. The altar is an established Christian institution and around it the young man seeking the Lord finds himself among Christians. There is always virtue in an established institution and the altar should not be discarded.

"When I saw my topic for today printed upon a card, I realized it was the most difficult I ever attacked, and I saw its significance," said the lecturer. "Man is created next to God and has the capacity to think God's thoughts to commune with Him, to do His work and work for Him. In the rounds of creation man is at the very top, where he can step off in the presence of God. According to the dictum of his conscience he is entitled to communion with God. God broke the loneliness of ages and created man to be His companion. All the ages look down with wonderment on the American civilization of today and the things it has accomplished. It is a higher type today than ever before."

The greatest responsibility of the 6,000 years rests upon it. We have a strong government; the army and navy are great weapons, but what of the man, the individual? "Democracy means the enthroning of the individual. Democracy implies the supreme sovereignty of the individual. They will always be a distinction between individuals. If all the money in East Liverpool were divided in the morning, it would not be equally possessed by night. It is not best that this should be so. There is a difference in men's abilities only to be accounted for by the Almighty. There is a difference in capacities that is intrinsic and cannot be overcome by political or religious institutions. Democracy demands men who have faithfulness in principles and ideals. The man whose vote is controlled by a manager, by environment or by heredity is undemocratic.

"In every line of activity the crying want is not for intellectual capacity, but for men of intelligence and moral responsibility. For the lack of it the national banks are under the espionage of the government, there are bluecoat officers in every city, the criminal courts cannot catch up with the grind and the newspapers teem with records of vice, wrecking of trains and people killed in many ways, simply because the moral responsibility of the young man has not kept pace with his intellectuality. I plead for men morally reliable. Men morally responsible are needed in the unfolding of our civilization for the work of constructive statesman has only begun. Looking into the eyes of the great McKinley I said: 'Sir, you are greatest constructive statesman of the age,' and he replied: 'This age needs constructive statesmen.' The vein has only been uncovered and we must work it. All our institutions are in a fundamental stage. The principles have been uncovered, but men are needed in their application and development."

"The American is a fortune maker. He goes to bed poor and gets up rich. We need men with the power to distribute money as a democracy demands. It is now being used as in a monarchy and the survival of the strongest is at the front. There is need to democratize our money."

"Young men are victims of inertia. They revolve in the same groove, do the same things. Men are needed to accomplish the cleansing of the city. It is a great task and he who undertakes it should seek adequate help to be found only at the fountain, Jesus Christ, the store house of wisdom that never fails. Who will be the living stone to explore the dark corners? Who will be the Abraham Lincoln to tell the people that a house divided against itself cannot stand, that every dollar spent in the saloon is taken from the channels of trade? Whosoever will undertake this, shut the door upon the world and seek divine help, and he will be crowned with success."

OF CONVINCING POWER

An Able Sermon By Rev. J. W. Gorrell on the Witness of the Spirit.

The evening sermon at the First Christian church by Rev. J. W. Gorrell on the subject, "The Witness of the Spirit," was notable for its convincing power that the work of the spirit can be witnessed. The discourse had been prepared for the revival services which are in progress at the church and certainly sustained the pastor's able efforts during this series of meetings.

The music was directed by Prof. A. R. Davis, of Mt. Vernon, who has conducted the music at all the revival meetings. The special services will be continued during this week. Rev. Mr. Gorrell will preach each evening and Prof. Davis will remain to direct the music.

OLD TESTAMENT REVIVAL

Sermon at First U. P. Church Preparatory to a Series of Special Services.

Rev. Dr. J. C. Taggart talked eloquently to a large congregation at the evening service from the subject, "An Old Testament Revival." This was handled in a most able manner and he held the closest of attention throughout. The service was in a way preparatory to a series of special meetings, which will be held in the church this week, commencing Wednesday evening, under Rev. Mr. Hawk.

nesday evening, under Rev. Mr. Hawk. The services will be in the nature of a revival and the members of the congregation are looking forward to them with a great deal of interest, and it is expected that much good will be accomplished. Rev. Mr. Hawk is a talented and eloquent minister and has had wonderful success in evangelical work.

EAST END

CHURCH SERVICES

Interesting Meetings Held in the East End, and Able Sermons Delivered.

The services at all the East End churches were well attended both morning and evening in spite of the fact that it was one of the worst nights of the winter. At the Second Presbyterian the services were of more than ordinary interest. Rev. N. M. Crox preached two excellent sermons to large congregations. In the morning on the subject: "Is It Well With Thy Soul?" and in the evening: "Almost Persuaded." Prof. A. B. Martin, who has been secured to conduct the music, at the revival services now in progress, sang several pleasing solos. Commencing tonight, there will be services every evening this week, to be conducted by Rev. Mr. VanPoulsen, assisted by the pastor, Prof. Martin will remain during the week.

At the Second United Presbyterian church Rev. D. W. McQuiston had large congregations to hear him preach on: "Dead to Sin and Risen with Christ" at the morning service, and on "What Mean Ye by These Stones?" at the evening service.

The usual services were held at the Erie street M. E. church, where two able sermons were delivered by the pastor.

Politics Now Quiet.

The political situation in the East End this morning was quieter than at any time since the opening of the campaign. Saturday evening considerable work was done by the friends of the candidates and the quiet of today is only regarded as the calm before the storm. Nearly every voter has his mind made up and it is the work of the "heelers" to hold them in line. The consensus of opinion is that close to 500 votes will be cast, but no two agree as to how they will be divided up among the mayoralty candidates.

Car Off the Track.

A car jumped the track near the Mulberry street crossing at about 12:30 o'clock this morning and a number of the operatives had to work over-time to get it on again. The noise they made, a great deal of which is said to have been entirely unnecessary, kept the residents of the neighborhood awake until after 3 o'clock and a great deal of complaint was heard this morning.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

E. J. Owens, after spending Sunday with his family, returned to Minerva this morning.

J. L. Fulton, of Mulberry street, very ill with typhoid fever, is reported worse today.

The twin babies of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. White are reported very ill today with pneumonia.

Dr. R. J. Marshall is feeling much better this morning and is able to be up and around his room.

A number of the clay hands at Laughlin No. 2 were loafing today on account of the cold weather.

Gus Hanley is making some extensive improvements on the interior of his Mulberry street news stand.

J. E. Delaney, of Ravenswood, W. Va., has purchased property in the East End and will move his family here in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. McElhany and daughter Nellie, of Gallia county, who have been visiting relatives in the East End, returned home Saturday.

James Elliott, who has been exposed to the smallpox has isolated himself at the home of his father, M. W. Elliott, where a room has been prepared for him. If he takes the disease it is not likely that he will have communicated it to any other person.

When you buy a package of Mi-o-na, the great flesh forming food and dyspepsia cure, weigh yourself and see how much you gain in the first week's use.

Druggist Will Reed will tell you of many of his customers who a month or so ago were thin, pale, haggard, and dyspeptic, but who are now, through the use of Mi-o-na, plump, strong and happy, with perfect health and good digestion. He has seen so many instances of the wonderful power of Mi-o-na to restore the sick to health and to make good, natural flesh that he gives his personal guarantee with every package of Mi-o-na he sells to refund the money if the remedy does not prove satisfactory.

Mi-o-na is a purely vegetable preparation that can be used with absolute confidence by the most delicate. It gives remarkable results with children who are weak, run down and without appetite. It builds up the thin, pale, puny girl and woman to perfect plumpness and health. It is the only flesh-forming food of its kind, and in addition it strengthens the digestive organs, aids the food to digest, and makes complete and permanent cures of the worst cases of dyspepsia.

ORCHESTRA CONCERTS

Fourteenth Set at Pittsburg This Week—Miss Susanne Adams, Soloist.

The fourteenth set of concerts by the Pittsburg orchestra in Carnegie music hall will be given Friday evening, February 20, and Saturday afternoon, February 21. With these concerts it may be said the orchestra is entering upon the real closing of the season, for only five more sets remain to be given, and the musical offering Mr. Herbert has provided for the next five weeks excels in quality, in novelty and general worth any similar period in the history of the organization.

The soloist for these concerts is Miss Susanne Adams, who is a great favorite here, having been heard in the grand opera last season with the orchestra. She is an American and by reason of earnest and proper study and fine determination has reached her most enviable position. The aria she has chosen was a favorite with her fathers when they had only the Italian operas; it is gay in sentiment and a very brilliant number generally. Her three songs are happily chosen and each is a work of a master.

In full the program is:

REALM OF SPORTS

SELECTING MEN FOR THE NEW TEAM

No Lack of Good Material For Making Up a First Class Organization.

SOME WELL KNOWN BOYS

Who Will Undoubtedly Play With East Liverpool as Before—Much Care Necessary in Deciding Upon the Outside Talent.

Since the definite announcement was made that East Liverpool is really to have a salaried baseball team as to who the local players will be that are chosen to form the lineup. The management cannot at the present time decide on that question. There are quite a number of players in the city that are eminently qualified to hold down positions with the team, but difficulties may be met with in signing them under agreements which will be mutual.

It is argued that the men can only be paid according to merit, and on this line it is expected that much trouble will ensue. There are men who can be talked to and made to understand their short comings, but as is always the case in baseball circles, sometimes a player who happens to make a creditable showing and receives hearty acclaim immediately gets swelled head, conceit takes the place of conservativeness, and no argument presented would convince him that he is not on the same footing as the best of his fellow players.

Among the local diamond experts there are some who, it is contended, should be glad to land a steady position for the five months at $35 per month. If they were not under salary they would be loafing half of the time anyway, and their wages would not equal what they will receive on the team. The imported players are the ones that will cost the money. Only the best material will be signed, and it is hardly likely that they can be secured for less than $50 per month. However, some of the best players in the country last season starting with amateur teams did not receive more than $30 and in one instance a man was known to work on the team for nothing. He is well known in the city and was a first class pitcher. He stated, while his team was here, that he was simply getting his expenses.

Among the local boys that will be conferred with as to signing are the following: The Emerling brothers, both of whom have played for years and though fast enough for league company, have been steady, hardworking men when on the field, and either one would be a valuable acquisition to the team.

Fred Harkathorn, one of the best first basemen, considering his bad leg that ever stepped onto a diamond, will most assuredly be sought. He plays with all his heart, gives life to the game and without him the players are at a great loss.

Tony Davis made an enviable record at third base last season and will be one of the best men on the team if the management is able to sign him. With a little practice he will not long be content in amateur circles.

Bibb Webb would make as good a second baseman as could be procured. He is an athlete in every sense of the word and covers ground with great dexterity.

Chick Reark is indispensable. In center field he is a wonder. As was said of Curt Welch, he can tell with in a foot the exact spot that a ball is going to drop when it leaves the bat. He will also be looked upon favorably as captain.

Of the pitchers, Larry Maley will undoubtedly be one. He has already an international reputation, and the new team will be lucky if he is secured. It is not likely that he will play in the local class more than the coming year, his ability being strong enough to set him in pace with the best.

The above named boys are just a few of those who will be considered by the organization.

CHAMPION'S LIFE IS NOT ALWAYS ROSY

Jim Jefferies Tells in a Concise Manner of Trouble Incident to the Fame.

Jim Jefferies, top slugger, was asked how it feels to be champion of the world, and these are his confessions: "No different than not to be. What are the disadvantages of being champion?" Listen and I'll tell you a few. Every fellow you do not know comes up and shake hands and says he is awfully glad to meet you, and wants to take up half an hour of your time. If he is drunk then he wants to take up an hour. Oh, these drunken men. I do not like them. They either love you to death or go to the other extreme. Another incident in the life of a world's champion is to see a man sneak behind a crowd and make audible remarks behind your back. I would like to get a crack at some of those fellows, but they are sneaks and they are sure not to say anything nasty to your face. But I am used to being 'kicked,' and do not care very much. It is all in the life of a champion pugilist.

"The man who wakes me up in a sleeping car just to shake hands with me may be a well-wisher, but I wish he would go to the next berth and disturb the drummer sleeping there instead. These are only a few. As a rule, I get along all right, and am enjoying life."

There has been considerable talk among Wellsville sports of late relative to the forming of a stock company to employ a first-class ball team for that city for the coming season. Local capitalists, who have the spirit to push the scheme through, are said to be backing it.

Several first-class ball players have already been communicated with upon this matter, and it is known that several of the old-time ball players of the city have been approached on the subject and seem in favor of securing a representative team for Wellsville. Developments will be watched with interest.

At the Second Presbyterian the services were of more than ordinary interest. Rev. N. M. Cross preached two excellent sermons to large congregations. In the morning on the subject: "Is It Well With Thy Soul?" and in the evening: "Almost Persuaded." Prof. A. B. At the Second United Presbyterian church Rev. D. W. McQuiston had large congregations to hear him preach on: "Dead to Sin and Risen with Christ" at the morning service, and on "Want Mean Ye by These Stones?" at the evening service.

The usual services were held at the Erie street M. E. church, where two able sermons were delivered by the pastor.

Politics Now Quiet.

The political situation in the East End this morning was quieter than at any time since the opening of the campaign. Saturday evening considerable work was done by the friends of the candidates and the quiet of today is only regarded as the calm before the storm. Nearly every voter has his mind made up and it is the work of the "heelers" to hold them in line. The consensus of opinion is that close to 500 votes will be cast, but no two agree as to how they will be divided up among the mayoralty candidates.

Car Off the Track.

A car jumped the track near the Mulberry street crossing at about 12:30 o'clock this morning and a number of the operatives had to work overtime to get it on again. The noise they made, a great deal of which is said to have been entirely unnecessary, kept the residents of the neighborhood awake until after 3 o'clock and a great deal of complaint was heard this morning.

A FLESH FORMING FOOD

When you buy a package of Mi-o-na, the great flesh forming food and dyspepsia cure, weigh yourself and see how much you gain in the first week's use.

Druggist Will Reed will tell you of many of his customers who a month or so ago were thin, pale, haggard, and dyspeptic, but who are now, through the use of Mi-o-na, plump, strong and happy, with perfect health and good digestion. He has seen so many instances of the wonderful power of Mi-o-na to restore the sick to health and to make good, natural flesh that he gives his personal guarantee with every package of Mi-o-na he sells to refund the money if the remedy does not prove satisfactory.

Mi-o-na is a purely vegetable preparation that can be used with absolute confidence by the most delicate. It gives remarkable results with children who are weak, run down and without appetite. It builds up the thin, pale, puny girl and woman to perfect plumpness and health. It is the only flesh-forming food of its kind, and in addition it strengthens the digestive organs, aids the food to digest, and makes complete and permanent cures of the worst cases of dyspepsia.

ORCHESTRA CONCERTS

Fourteenth Set at Pittsburg This Week—Miss Susanne Adams, Soloist.

The fourteenth set of concerts by the Pittsburg orchestra in Carnegie music hall will be given Friday evening, February 20, and Saturday afternoon, February 21. With these concerts it may be said the orchestra is entering upon the real closing of the season, for only five more set remain to be given, and the musical offering Mr. Herbert has provided for the next five weeks exceeds in quality, in novelty and general worth any similar period in the history of the organization.

The soloist for these concerts is Miss Susanne Adams, who is a great favorite here, having been heard in the grand opera last season with the orchestra. She is an American and by reason of earnest and proper study and fine determination has reached her most enviable position. The aria she has chosen was a favorite with her fathers when they had only the Italian operas; it is gay in sentiment and a very brilliant number generally. Her three songs are happily chosen and each is a work of a master.

In full the program is:
Prelude, Choral and Fugue.....

..... Bach-Abert
Aria of Titania, from "Mignon".....

..... A. Thomas
Symphony "From the New World".....

..... Dvorak
Ballet Music "The Cid"..... Massenet

REALM OF SPORTS

SELECTING MEN FOR THE NEW TEAM

No Lack of Good Material For Making Up a First Class Organization.

SOME WELL KNOWN BOYS

Who Will Undoubtedly Play With East Liverpool as Before—Much Care Necessary in Deciding Upon the Outside Talent.

Since the definite announcement was made that East Liverpool is really to have a salaried baseball team next season the fans have talked much as to who the local players will be that are chosen to form the lineup. The management cannot at the present time decide on that question. There are quite a number of players in the city that are eminently qualified to hold down positions with the team, but difficulties may be met with in signing them under agreements which will be mutual.

It is argued that the men can only be paid according to merit, and on this line it is expected that much trouble will ensue. There are men who can be talked to and made to understand their short comings, but as is always the case in baseball circles, sometimes a player who happens to make a creditable showing and receives hearty cheering immediately gets swelled head, conceit takes the place of conservativeness, and no argument presented would convince him that he is not on the same footing the best of his fellow players.

Among the local diamond experts there are some who, it is contended, should be glad to land a steady position for the five months at $35 per month. If they were not under salary they would be leaving half of the time anyway, and their wages would not equal what they will receive on the team. The imported players are the ones that will cost the money. Only the best material will be signed, and it is hardly likely that they can be secured for less than $50 per month. However, some of the best players in the country last season starring with amateur teams did not receive more than $30 and in one instance a man was known to work on the team for nothing. He is well known in the city and was a first class pitcher. He stated, while his team was here, that he was simply getting his expenses.

Among the local boys that will be conferred with as to signing are the following: The Emerling brothers, both of whom have played for years and though fast enough for league company, have been steady, hardworking men when on the field, and either one would be a valuable acquisition to the team.

Fred Hackathorn, one of the best first basemen, considering his bad leg that ever stepped onto a diamond, will most assuredly be sought. He plays with all his heart, gives life to the game and without him the players are at a great loss.

Tommy Davis made an enviable record at third base last season and will be one of the best men on the team if the management is able to sign him. With a little practice he will not long be content in amateur circles.

Bibb Webb would make as good a second baseman as could be procured. He is an athlete in every sense of the word and covers ground with great dexterity.

Chick Reark is indispensable. In center field he is a wonder. As was said of Curt Welch, he can tell with in a foot the exact spot that a ball is going to drop when it leaves the bat. He will also be looked upon favorably as captain.

Of the pitchers, Larry Maley will undoubtedly be one. He has already an international reputation, and the new team will be lucky if he is secured. It is not likely that he will play in the local class more than the coming year, his ability being strong enough to set him in pace with the best.

The above named boys are just a few of those who will be considered by the organization.

ORCHESTRA CONCERTS

Fourteenth Set at Pittsburg This Week—Miss Susanne Adams, Soloist.

The fourteenth set of concerts by the Pittsburg orchestra in Carnegie music hall will be given Friday evening, February 20, and Saturday afternoon, February 21. With these concerts it may be said the orchestra is entering upon the real closing of the season, for only five more sets remain to be given, and the musical offering Mr. Herbert has provided for the next five weeks excels in quality, in novelty and general worth any similar period in the history of the organization.

The soloist for these concerts is Miss Susanne Adams, who is a great favorite here, having been heard in the grand opera last season with the orchestra. She is an American and by reason of earnest and proper study and fine determination has reached her most enviable position. The aria she has chosen was a favorite with her fathers when they had only the Italian operas; it is gay in sentiment and a very brilliant number generally. Her three songs are happily chosen and each is a work of a master.

In full the program is:

Prelude, Chorale and Fugue.....
..... Bach-Abert
Aria of Titania, from "Mignon".....
..... A. Thomas
Symphony "From the New World".....
..... Dvorak
Ballet Music "The Cid".....
..... Massenet
Songs: (a) Du bist wie eine Blume.....
..... Schumann
(b) Als die Alte Mutter.....
..... Tschalkowsky
(c) Tonjours a toi.....
..... Tschalkowsky
Marche Slave.....

REALM OF SPORTS

SELECTING MEN FOR THE NEW TEAM

No Lack of Good Material For Making Up a First Class Organization.

SOME WELL KNOWN BOYS

Who Will Undoubtedly Play With East Liverpool as Before—Much Care Necessary in Deciding Upon the Outside Talent.

Since the definite announcement was made that East Liverpool is really to have a salaried baseball team next season the fans have talked much as to who the local players will be that are chosen to form the lineup. The management cannot at the present time decide on that question. There are quite a number of players in the city that are eminently qualified to hold down positions with the team, but difficulties may be met with in signing them under agreements which will be mutual.

It is argued that the men can only be paid according to merit, and on this line it is expected that much trouble will ensue. There are men who can be talked to and made to understand their short comings, but, as is always the case in baseball circles, sometimes a player who happens to make a creditable showing and receives hearty endorsing immediately gets swelled head, conceit takes the place of conservativeness, and no argument presented would convince him that he is not on the same footing the best of his fellow players.

Among the local diamond experts there are some who, it is contended, should be glad to land a steady position for the five months at $35 per month. If they were not under salary they would be loafing half of the time anyway, and their wages would not equal what they will receive on the team. The imported players are the ones that will cost the money. Only the best material will be signed, and it is hardly likely that they can be secured for less than $50 per month. However, some of the best players in the country last season starting with amateur teams did not receive more than $30 and in one instance a man was known to work on the team for nothing. He is well known in the city and was a first class pitcher. He stated, while his team was here, that he was simply getting his expenses.

Among the local boys that will be conferred with as to signing are the following: The Emerling brothers, both of whom have played for years, and though fast enough for league company, have been steady, hardworking men when on the field, and either one would be a valuable acquisition to the team.

Fred Hackathorn, one of the best first basemen, considering his bad leg that ever stepped onto a diamond, will most assuredly be sought. He plays with all his heart, gives life to the game and without him the players are at a great loss.

Tommy Davis made an enviable record at third base last season and will be one of the best men on the team if the management is able to sign him. With a little practice he will not long be content in amateur circles.

Billy Webb would make as good a second baseman as could be procured. He is an athlete in every sense of the word and covers ground with great dexterity.

Chick Reark is indispensable. In center field he is a wonder. As was said of Curt Welch, he can tell with in a foot the exact spot that a ball is going to drop when it leaves the bat. He will also be looked upon favorably as captain.

Of the pitchers, Larry Maley will undoubtedly be one. He has already an international reputation, and the new team will be lucky if he is secured. It is not likely that he will play in the local class more than the coming year, his ability being strong enough to set him in pace with the best.

The above named boys are just a few of those who will be considered by the organization.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1932.

Western Democrats are reported preparing to inaugurate an aggressive silver campaign. The preliminary steps are to be taken at a Jefferson day dinner at Des Moines April 2, when W. J. Bryan is to be one of the chief orators. Any set of Democrats which proposes to make free silver a paramount issue in 1934 will waste its labor, of course, though it can cause trouble nowhere except in the Democratic party. The Republicans will gladly welcome a battle on the old lines. Bryanism, if it comes to the front again in 1934, will certainly be easier to defeat than ever, for the number of Democrats who have grown weary of it and will gladly vote it down has grown surprisingly in the past few years.

The movement to strengthen and improve the child labor laws is becoming extensive and earnest. It has now struck New York city, where the evil is probably greater than anywhere else in the country. Labor organizations are zealously interesting themselves on the side of humanity and philanthropy.

The mayoralty is important, but not so much so that all interest and attention should be centered on that contest. The selection of good men for the board of public service and for members of council needs to be looked after most carefully.

A good deal of American money will go into the isthmian canal, but much of it will be spent for American material and expert labor. The digging of the canal will decidedly assist to maintain prosperity.

Democratic orators have been telling what Lincoln would have done had he lived. What he did to the Democracy when he was alive was a plenty.

AT THE THEATER

One of the most pleasing announcements the local theater management could have to make to the amusement loving element, is the coming of Isabel Irving in the original production of Winston Churchill's most favored of all American romances, "The Crisis," under the auspices of the theater users. Miss Irving has the complete original production with which the great Churchill play was introduced at Pittsburg on March 3, last spring, and has since been presented with conspicuous success at St. Louis, Philadelphia and the other large cities. None of the local house scenery will be used.

Confesses to Hold Up.

Butte, Mont., Feb. 16.—George Cole, under arrest here, has made confession of the Burlington hold up of last Wednesday, and implicates George Howard, alias Joe Kirby. He says they sent a boy to a livery stable to hire a rig Tuesday night. They drove to the scene of the hold up and held up the train. Kirby had two guns, but was too drunk to use them. Kirby is the man who jumped on the engine as the train was nearing Homestead and compelled the engineer to stop and made the fireman get down. But for Kirby's drunken condition, Cole says, they would have met with better success. Cole and his companion were arrested Saturday because they answered the general description of the two robbers.

Advised to Copy Our Style.

Berlin, Feb. 16.—Minister of Commerce Meoller, in the course of an address to the Hanover chamber of commerce Saturday, said: "The United States will be Germany's competitor in the world's markets in the future. We must therefore learn from the Americans to adopt their business methods, the most marked feature of which is the concentration of capital and trade into trusts. The strong repugnance existing in Germany against such combinations will certainly be replaced in time by a better view, especially after the evils of the syndicates have been removed."

Protocols for the Unallied. Washington, Feb. 16.—Minister Bowen expected to begin immediately the preparations of the protocols with the representatives of the unallied powers for the settlement of the claims of the citizens of those nations who have suffered as a result of the troubles in Venezuela. There are eight of these claimant nations, including the United States. The drawing up of the protocol with this government will be the first undertaken by Solicitor Penfield, of the state department, will represent the United States in these negotiations with Mr. Bowen.

Work on this protocol, it is expected, will begin today, and Mr. Bowen's belief is that matters will move forward with great rapidity than they did with the representatives of the allied governments who were enforcing the blockade against Venezuela. The negotiations with France will follow those with the United States, and so on until the protocols with all the unallied creditor nations are completed.

The suggestion has been made that as the unallied nations naturally are opposed to any preferential treatment to Germany, Great Britain and Italy, that in all probability Venezuela, the United States and France will be lined up as representing the eight unallied nations at The Hague as opposed to the three allies.

HEAVY SNOW FALL IN THE WEST

Railroad Traffic Retarded and Telegraph Lines Damaged—Fears for Live Stock.

Guthrie, O. T., Feb. 16.—The worst storm of the winter struck Oklahoma about midnight Sunday night and has been raging with terrific fierceness ever since. Sleet and rain was followed by a driving snow storm, a cold norther accompanying. On account of their good condition no damage to cattle or wheat is expected. Rain was preceded by a dense fog, the only one known to present residents of the territory.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 16.—Snow has been falling in this city and Western Missouri at intervals during the last 36 hours and now covers the ground to the depth of seven inches, making it the heaviest fall of the winter. Work on this protocol, it is expected, will begin today, and Mr. Bowen's belief is that matters will move forward with great rapidity than they did with the representatives of the allied governments who were enforcing the blockade against Venezuela. The negotiations with France will follow those with the United States, and so on until the protocols with all the unallied creditor nations are completed.

The suggestion has been made that as the unallied nations naturally are opposed to any preferential treatment to Germany, Great Britain and Italy, that in all probability Venezuela, the United States and France will be lined up as representing the eight unallied nations at The Hague as opposed to the three allies.

Western Democrats are reported preparing to inaugurate an aggressive silver campaign. The preliminary steps are to be taken at a Jefferson day dinner at Des Moines April 2, when W. J. Bryan is to be one of the chief orators. Any set of Democrats which proposes to make free silver a paramount issue in 1934 will waste its labor, of course, though it can cause trouble nowhere except in the Democratic party. The Republicans will gladly welcome a battle on the lines. Bryanism, if it comes to the front again in 1934, will certainly be easier to defeat than ever, for the number of Democrats who have grown weary of it and will gladly vote it down has grown surprisingly in the past few years.

The movement to strengthen and improve the child labor laws is becoming extensive and earnest. It has now struck New York city, where the evil is probably greater than anywhere else in the country. Labor organizations are zealously interesting themselves on the side of humanity and philanthropy.

The mayoralty is important, but not so much so that all interest and attention should be centered on that contest. The selection of good men for the board of public service and for members of council needs to be looked after most carefully.

A good deal of American money will go into the isthmian canal, but much of it will be spent for American material and expert labor. The digging of the canal will decidedly assist to maintain prosperity.

Democratic orators have been telling what Lincoln would have done had he lived. What he did to the Democracy when he was alive was a plenty.

In the settlement of the Venezuelan affair American diplomacy scores an

There is no other season when good medicine is so much needed as in the Spring.

The blood is impure, weak and impoverished—a condition indicated by pimples and other eruptions on the face and body, by deficient vitality, loss of appetite, lack of strength, and want of animation.

Make the blood pure, vigorous and rich, create appetite, give vitality, strength and animation, and cure all eruptions. Have the whole family begin to take them today.

other triumph, and the Monroe doctrine complete recognition.

Democratic harmony is just what Bryan does not desire, because if it prevailed it would keep him out of sight.

Venezuela, in the midst of her troubles, learns that she has one great and good friend. His name is Uncle Sam.

Congress has only a few days more for work, yet the senate acts as if it had an eternity for talking.

All sorts of political yarns are now current. The voters on Saturday will tell the true story.

Confessors to Hold Up.

Butte, Mont., Feb. 16.—George Cole, under arrest here, has made confession of the Burlington hold up of last Wednesday, and implicates George Howard, alias Joe Kirby. He says they sent a boy to a livery stable to hire a rig Tuesday night. They drove to the scene of the hold up and held up the train. Kirby had two guns, but was too drunk to use them. Kirby is the man who jumped on the engine as the train was nearing Homestead and compelled the engineer to stop and made the fireman get down. But for Kirby's drunken condition, Cole says, they would have met with better success. Cole and his companion were arrested Saturday because they answered the general description of the two robbers.

AT THE THEATER

One of the most pleasing announcements the local theater management could have to make to the amusement loving element, is the coming of Isa bel Irving in the original production of Winston Churchill's most favored of all American romances, "The Crisis," under the auspices of the theater ushers. Miss Irving has the complete original production with which the great Churchill play was introduced at Pittsburg on March 3, last spring, and has since been presented with conspicuous success at St. Louis, Philadelphia and the other large cities. None of the local house scenery will be used.

No Arrests Made.

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 16.—W. G. Caldwell, member of the legislature from Wheeling and chairman of the house judiciary committee, who was assaulted Saturday night, was able to get out of bed yesterday, but he was sitting up in a badly battered condition. He expects to be in his seat today in the house of deputies, when it is said that his colleague from Ohio county, Mr. Schwab, will offer a resolution to investigate the failure of local officials to serve warrants on Hanna and Winders. After Caldwell was ejected from his back Captain J. B. White and Officer Sprattling went to the private car occupied by Winders and Hanna, but found it locked. As Sheriff Jarrett was on the same train, taking some prisoners to the pen, the matter of arrest was left to him when the train left, but it is charged that telegrams were afterward sent for no arrests to be made.

Chinese Smuggling Arms.

Victoria, B. C., Feb. 16.—News was brought by the steamer Olympia that 1,600 sword bayonets have been seized at Chung Wang Tao. They were being imported by order of Viceroy Yan Shik Fai, who is now accused of deliberately violating the protocol between China and the powers. Extensive smuggling of weapons to arm the Chinese has been carried on in contravention of the treaty. Peking correspondents report that the emperor is imprisoned and closely guarded by the empress, who has surrounded him with a large guard since the return from the summer palace. Foreigners assembled along the route of the procession, which marked the return to Peking, were ill treated, some being arrested, including a party among whom were two women from the American legation.

Charged With Grand Larceny.

New York, Feb. 16.—On a short affidavit charging them with grand larceny the three men who were arrested by Central office detectives in raids on so-called "get-rich-quick concerns," in Nassau street, were held in $1,000 bail each in the Tombs police court yesterday for examination today. The men arraigned are Henry G. Cartwright, William Treadwell and Charles E. Goodrich. The affidavit on which the men were held charged them with grand larceny, "on information given by several persons who complained that they feloniously obtained from them large sums of money with intent to defraud by color and aid of false and fraudulent representations."

HEAVY SNOW FALL IN THE WEST

Railroad Traffic Retarded and Telegraph Lines Damaged—Fears for Live Stock.

Guthrie, O. T., Feb. 16.—The worst storm of the winter struck Oklahoma about midnight Sunday night and has been raging with terrific fierceness ever since. Sleet and rain was followed by a driving snow storm, a cold norther accompanying. On account of their good condition no damage to cattle or wheat is expected. Rain was preceded by a dense fog, the only one known to present residents of the territory.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 16.—Snow has been falling in this city and Western Missouri at intervals during the last 36 hours and now covers the ground to the depth of seven inches, making it the heaviest fall of the winter. Through trains are generally late and street car traffic is hampered. Telegraph and telephone companies have suffered damage.

Ardmore, I. T., Feb. 15.—The worst sleet storm in years prevailed yesterday, this section of the Indian territory. The storm began with a decided fall in temperature, following the heavy rains of the past few days. Everything in this part of the territory is covered with ice, and it is believed cattle men will suffer the loss of much stock.

Topeka, Kan., Feb. 16.—The worst blizzard of the winter prevailed over Kansas last night. Snow, accompanied by a strong north wind, fell all day yesterday and last night the temperature was near the zero mark. Cattle on the western ranges will doubtless suffer. Railroad traffic is retarded.

Lafayette, Ind., Feb. 16.—A heavy snow storm prevailed here yesterday. All trains were late, telephone wires were damaged and country roads were almost impassable.

Protocols for the Unallied.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Minister Bowen expected to begin immediately the preparations of the protocols with the representatives of the unallied powers for the settlement of the claims of the citizens of those nations who have suffered as a result of the troubles in Venezuela. There are eight of these claimant nations, including the United States. The drawing up of the protocol with this government will be the first undertaken. Solicitor Penfield, of the state department, will represent the United States in these negotiations with Mr. Bowen. Work on this protocol, it is expected, will begin today, and Mr. Bowen's belief is that matters will move forward with great rapidity, then they will with the representatives of the unallied governments who were enforcing the blockade against Venezuela. The negotiations with France will follow those with the United States, and so on until the protocols with all the unallied creditor nations are completed. The suggestion has been made that as the unallied nations naturally are opposed to any preferential treatment to Germany, Great Britain and Italy, that in all probability Venezuela, the United States and France will be lined up as representing the eight unallied nations at The Hague as opposed to the three allies.

DOGS DYING OFF

AT A RAPID RATE

Fully 15 Animals, Some of Them Valuable, Have Been Killed By Poison.

The dog poisoner is at work in the upper end of Chester. During the past week no less than 15 dogs have come to an untimely end. The people in the vicinity of the Rolling Mill addition, where most of the work has been done, are up in arms and threaten to do bodily harm to the executioner if his identity can be established. The trouble first started about two weeks ago when some one shot a small pet dog belonging to Mrs. Robert Dunn, which was prized very highly.

From that time the dogs in the neighborhood have been dying at the rate of about one a day, some of them being valuable ones, and every effort is being made to discover who the guilty party is.

New Pavement Damaged.

The rain of Saturday night and Sunday did considerable damage to the new pavement which was recently laid on California avenue, near the foot of Dunn street. The ground is very sandy and allowed the water to work under the pavement and undermine the gravel beds on which the bricks are laid. Quite a large washout has been made, and if the repairs are not made at once the damage will be considerable.

Mill Pay Made Business.

The portion of the tin mill which has been shut down for the past several days on account of a break in the boilers will probably start up about Wednesday. Saturday was pay day at the mill and a considerable portion of the money paid out was in gold. As a result of the pay business was exceedingly brisk in Chester Saturday evening.

Draining Off the Water.

Street Commissioner Allison has a force of men at work on lower Carolina avenue draining the Conklin and Stevenson lots, which work was ordered done by council at its last meeting. Both of the properties have been badly damaged by water, and it will take considerable work to make the necessary repairs.

Trees Blocked the Road.

Three large trees which stood along the new road recently built through the park fell across the road some time during last night and the vehicles this morning had considerable trouble in getting past. Later in the day the trees were cleared away.

Contract to Be Let.

The contract for the erection of the new livery barn of Arner & Bowers will be let this evening. The contract was to have been let some time ago, but the original location was changed, and a complete new set of plans made. Work will probably be started some time this week.

CHESTER NOTES.

Lewis Blankenship is recovering from a severe illness.

Nick Canally is home from a business trip to Wellsburg.

A. C. Hood, of Columbus, is the guest of his brother Norval, of Louisiana avenue.

Jack Glass will soon move with his family from the Samuel Allison farm to Chester.

Quite a number of Chester people will attend a social at Fairview tomorrow evening.

Foundations are being dug for two new houses to be erected by George H. Owen near the E. M. Knowles pottery.

Allen McDonald and John Marshall have purchased two lots in Lawrenceville on which houses will be built in the near future.

What Tilden Lent.

When Mr. Tilden in 1874 was nominated for governor of New York, Mr. Dorsheimer received the nomination for lieutenant governor. The ticket thus headed was elected by about 50,000 majority. A little knot of Germans in New York city who usually voted the Republican ticket took Mr. Dorsheimer from his name to be a German, and they scratched their ticket in his favor so that he had a majority of nearly 53,000. One day after Mr. Tilden and Mr. Dorsheimer had been inaugurated they met at a political breakfast at the former's house in Gramercy park. Mr. Tilden had always felt a little sore at Mr. Dorsheimer's extra majority, and so when in the current of conversation Mr. Dorsheimer jestingly said, "Well, governor, you must remember I had 3,000 more majority than you," as quick as a flash Mr. Tilden retorted, "Yes, you supplied the 3,000, and I lent you the fifty."

"Chickens!" she exclaimed in answer to her customer's request. "Chickens! Why, law, Miss Lucy, don't you all know there's been a camp meeting and preachers' conference down here? Why, I ain't got one chicken left! They're all gone entered the ministry!"—Lippincott's.

Stowaways Threaten Crew.

Algiers, Feb. 16.—The Austrian steamer Margherita, Trieste and Genoa, Feb. 7, for New York, put in here yesterday and landed 18 Sicilian stowaways, who smuggled themselves aboard at Palermo. Maddened by thirst the stowaways had armed themselves with knives and appeared on the deck, where they threatened to attack the officers. Muskets were dealt out to the crew, who succeeded in overawing them. The steamer then headed for Algiers, where the stowaways were handed over to the Italian consul. The Margherita proceeded on her voyage two days later.

Raising of Blockade Pleases All.

Willenstad, Curacao, Feb. 16.—There is great rejoicing among all classes here at the end of the Venezuelan blockade. Many sailing vessels are lying in this port with cargoes for Venezuelan ports. They will leave today. A number of steamers are loading for the same destination. A great amount of coffee is awaiting the transportation from Venezuela to the United States. No one apparently is more glad at the raising of the blockade than those of the blockading squadron.

The people in the vicinity of the Rolling Mill addition, where most of the work has been done, are up in arms and threaten to do bodily harm to the executioner if his identity can be established. The trouble first started about two weeks ago when some one shot a small pet dog belonging to Mrs. Robert Dunn, which was prized very highly.

From that time the dogs in the neighborhood have been dying at the rate of about one a day, some of them being valuable ones, and every effort is being made to discover who the guilty party is.

New Pavement Damaged.

The rain of Saturday night and Sunday did considerable damage to the new pavement which was recently laid on California avenue, near the foot of Dunn street. The ground is very sandy and allowed the water to work under the pavement and undermine the gravel beds on which the bricks are laid. Quite a large washout has been made, and if the repairs are not made at once the damage will be considerable.

Mill Pay Made Business.

The portion of the tin mill which has been shut down for the past several days on account of a break in the boilers will probably start up about Wednesday. Saturday was pay day at the mill and a considerable portion of the money paid out was in gold. As a result of the pay business was exceedingly brisk in Chester Saturday evening.

Draining Off the Water.

Street Commissioner Allison has a force of men at work on lower Carolina avenue draining the Conklin and Stevenson lots, which work was ordered done by council at its last meeting. Both of the properties have been badly damaged by water, and it will take considerable work to make the necessary repairs.

Trees Blocked the Road.

Three large trees which stood along the new road recently built through the park fell across the road some time during last night and the vehicles this morning had considerable trouble in getting past. Later in the day the trees were cleared away.

Contract to Be Let.

The contract for the erection of the new livery barn of Arner & Bowers will be let this evening. The contract was to have been let some time ago, but the original location was changed and a complete new set of plans made. Work will probably be started some time this week.

CHESTER NOTES.

Lewis Blankenship is recovering from a severe illness.

Nick Cenally is home from a business trip to Wellsburg.

A. C. Hood, of Columbus, is the guest of his brother Norval, of Louisiana avenue.

Jack Glass will soon move with his family from the Samuel Allison farm to Chester.

Quite a number of Chester people will attend a social at Fairview tomorrow evening.

Foundations are being dug for two new houses to be erected by George H. Owen near the E. M. Knowles pottery.

Allen McDonald and John Marshall have purchased two lots in Lawrenceville on which houses will be built in the near future.

What Tilden Lent.

When Mr. Tilden in 1874 was nominated for governor of New York, Mr. Dorsheimer received the nomination for lieutenant governor. The ticket thus headed was elected by about 50,000 majority. A little knot of Germans in New York city who usually voted the Republican ticket took Mr. Dorsheimer from his name to be a German, and they scratched their ticket in his favor so that he had a majority of nearly 50,000. One day after Mr. Tilden and Mr. Dorsheimer had been inaugurated they met at a political breakfast at the former's house in Gramercy park. Mr. Tilden had always felt a little sore at Mr. Dorsheimer's extra majority, and so when in the current of conversation Mr. Dorsheimer jestingly said, "Well, governor, you must remember I had 3,000 more majority than you," as quick as a flash Mr. Tilden reported, "Yes, you supplied the 3,000, and I lent you the life."

Muskets were dealt out to the crew, who succeeded in overawing them. The steamer then headed for Algiers, where the stowaways were handed over to the Italian consul. The Margherita proceeded on her voyage two days later.

DON'T DELAY. IS NEARING THE END.

It is "Putting Off" Till Some Other Day that Causes so Many Sudden Deaths.

If its for the kidneys, liver, bladder or blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia, chronic constipation, or the weakness peculiar to women, the most efficient medicine known to the medical profession is Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and a very simple way to find out if you need it, is to put some urine in a glass tumbler and let it stand 24 hours; if it has a sediment or a milky, cloudy appearance, if it isropy or stringy, pale or discolored, you do not need a physician to tell you that your kidneys and bladder are badly affected.

The Rev. Theodore Hunter, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Greensburg, Ky., writes us the following:

"It gives me much pleasure to state that I have received great benefit from the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. Some time ago I had a severe attack of kidney trouble, but a few bottles of 'Favorite Remedy' have entirely removed the malady."

"Favorite Remedy" speedily cures such dangerous symptoms as pain in the back, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, burning scalding pain in passing water, the staining of linen by your urine.

It is for sale by all druggists in the New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles. Less than a cent a dose. Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail. Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N. Y.

Mr. H. K. Mitchell, of New Philadelphia, O., speaks of Life Plant in the following emphatic language:

Life Plant is a wonder. We have used it in our family for nearly a year and find it to be all that is claimed for it in giving tone and vigor to the system. It certainly cures rheumatic trouble. In fact I believe it will cure any disease that is reached through the blood.

We guarantee the genuineness of every TESTIMONIAL. The above was simple and easy when the proper method was followed. It is a notable fact in science, that disease germs can not exist in pure matter. There must be some impurity else they die. You might arrest a disease by local application, and take some poisons fatal to disease germs, but you cannot hope for a cure by that system of treatment. You must get at the cause.

Impure blood is the cause of practically ALL diseases. To cure any disease you must by some means purify the BLOOD. Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Rheumatism, Eczema, Hives, Tetter, Catarrh and Asthma, are the most familiar forms of blood diseases. Life Plant purifies the BLOOD. It renews LIFE, it restores the vital element in the BLOOD. That is why it cures diseases, and prevents disease. It is nature's way. It's the common sense way. Try it NOW. DELAY IS DANGEROUS.

Only Fourteen More Working Days of the Present Session Left.

STATEHOOD BILL THE FEATURE.

Compromise Abandoned and Measure Will Be Settled in Open Fight. Only Matters of Minor Importance to Be Considered Today.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The senate still finds itself burdened with the statehood bill, and while just as anxious to dispose of it in some way, in order to proceed unimpeded with other business, it is not even as confident of being able to do so as at the beginning of last week. With only 14 working days of the session left, senators generally feel that the matter must be gotten out of the way, but when a suggestion of this kind is made the reply invariably is that not withstanding the statehood bill has held the right of way position practically during the entire session, there has been no lack of legislation, and that all bills to which there has not been serious opposition have been passed and that not a single appropriation bill has been delayed for a moment by the statehood bill. The feeling is none the less strong, however, that the statehood bill will be seriously in the way at the close of the session unless disposed of very soon. There are still numerous appropriation bills to be considered. Senator Cullom wants to call up various treaties; Senator Lodge is anxious over the fate of the Philippine bills; Senators Penrose and Fairbanks are clamoring for time for the immigration bill; Senator Aldrich wants his national bank bill considered; Senator McComas is urging the eight-hour bill; Senator Quarles the land entry bill, and Senator Warren his omnibus claims bill. Indeed, there is scarcely a senator who has not some measure which he desires to press, and all feel that the statehood bill may be in the way of consideration. Senator Quay, moreover, Saturday gave notice that he would insist on having the statehood bill taken up promptly after the close of routine morning business each day in order to cut off other measures. All thought of compromise on the statehood matter apparently has been abandoned, and no course except to fight it out now seems open. The Democrats have refused absolutely to accept a compromise which would flunk Arizona with New Mexico, and Senator Quay has decided not to make any agreement which would not be satisfactory to his allies. His intention, therefore, is to "stay with the bill to the end," and the question now awaiting his decision is whether or not to adopt the bold and hazardous course of pressing the measure as a rider or amendment to one of the appropriation bills.

It is expected that the postoffice bill as amended by including the statehood proposition will be reported to the senate on Tuesday or Wednesday, and Senator Mason, chairman of the postoffice committee, announces that it is his purpose to ask for almost immediate consideration.

The chief supporters of the two important treaties now before the senate, the Panama canal treaty and the Cuban reciprocity treaty, are greatly puzzled over the situation. The statehood bill stands squarely across their respective pathways. After allowing one day for consideration of the Panama treaty, Senator Quay has declined to yield any more time, and as a consequence Senator Cullom, who is in charge of both treaties, finds the end of the senate approaching without seeing his way clear to get either treaty ratified.

The present purpose is not to attempt to take up the Cuban treaty until the Panama treaty is out of the way. Most of the Democratic senators and two or three Republican senators will vote against the Cuban agreement, but if a vote can be reached it is believed that it will be ratified. Today the Indian appropriation bill will be taken up again and its consideration probably concluded.

House Forecast. The appropriation bills are well advanced in the house for this stage of the session. With less than three weeks of the session ahead, only three of the supply bills remain to be acted on. Two of these, the naval and fortification bills, are on the calendar and will be passed this week. The general deficiency bill will follow next week. Delays on these bills in the senate, however, now promise to crowd things during the final hours. The Fowler currency bill, which has been postponed from time to time, is to have a special rule making it a continuing order at the first opportunity this week. But if it reaches the stage of consideration it will be sidetracked when an appropriation bill or conference report is ready. Consequently considerable skepticism is now manifested as to whether it will be brought to a vote. Today is suspension day, but only matters of minor importance will be considered. Mr. Moon (Dem. Tenn.) still refuses assent to requests for unanimous consent because the Indian territory bill is not given consideration, and his course compels recourse to suspension day for bridge bills and other minor measures which usually go through by unanimous consent.

FIND THE HIDDEN COURTIER.

THEY REMEMBERED THE MAINE.

Four Hundred Americans Observe the Fifth Anniversary of Her Destruction.

Havana, Feb. 16.—Four hundred Americans yesterday observed the fifth anniversary of the destruction of the Maine, proceeding to where the wreck now lies with a flag draped with crape and a wreath, which was hung on the wreck as a tribute to those who lost their lives in the disaster. Representatives of the Cuban Veterans' association took part in the ceremony and brought the finest of all the floral offerings.

The exercises were purely memorial, references calculated to revive animosities being avoided. The United States legation was not represented and the Cuban government officials decided not to attend. A government launch accompanied the procession to the wreck. United States Consul Rublee, Vice Consul Springer and some representatives of the United States army were present. All about the harbor American and Cuban flags were flying at half mast. The strains of the dead march, played by the band of the United States artillery corps, floated across the water as the procession made its way to the Maine. After completing the decoration of the tormented wreck, a prayer was offered up by Rev. Mr. McPherson. General Nunez, the governor of Havana province, who is also the president of the Cuban Veterans' association, spoke in Spanish to the effect that the Cuban veterans would never permit such an occasion to pass without testifying their regard for those whom the Cubans were proud to regard as comrades.

Fatalities in Southern Railway Wreck. Washington, Feb. 16.—Further investigation of the Southern Railway wreck, which occurred at Ravensworth, Va., early yesterday morning, when the New York and Florida express dashed into an open switch, confirms the opinion that the catastrophe was of malicious origin. Mr. A. Gordon Jones, superintendent of the Washington division, says the track was in perfect shape a short time prior to the wreck, and an investigation afterward showed that the lock of the switch had been broken and taken entirely away. He is more inclined to the belief that some enemy of the road desired to wreck the train and that no robbery was intended. Both Engineer John Purvis, of Alexandria, Va., and Walter Winkton, the fireman, died at their posts. The former's body was found under the engine, burned and terribly mangled. Two postal clerks, Victor P. Hammer and N. W. Borden, living in this city, were injured quite severely.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out. Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it is as you see your line it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scaling pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Woman Shot from Ambush and Husband Cannot Be Located—Father Slightly Wounded.

Oil City, Pa., Feb. 16.—Mrs. Benlah Zilliro, aged 18, was shot and mortally wounded while entering the back door of her father's home at Brad's Bend, about 3 o'clock on Saturday night, and her husband, Harvey Zilliro, aged 29, is missing. He is a large and cannot be located.

Until two weeks ago the pair made their home with Sylvester Rohrmoser, postmaster of the place. Then the husband beat and choked his wife and the father drove him away. Zilliro went to Ford City, where he was employed in a livery barn. On Saturday he hired a team there, which yesterday morning was found at the rear of the Episcopal church, 200 yards away from the scene of the tragedy.

On Saturday night about 9 o'clock Mrs. Zilliro, who was at the store and postoffice with her father, accompanied him home. When they reached the rear door, the father carrying a lighted lantern, a shotgun was fired from a small shed and the woman fell. The father chased the murderer a short distance and then returned to care for his daughter, whom he carried into the house, where she died in about two hours. There were 30 lead pellets in her abdomen and stomach. The father was slightly wounded in the right arm and hand by stray shots.

Jealousy Causes Murder.

Hamilton, O., Feb. 16.—Samuel Keeler, a teamster, aged 40, yesterday killed his wife, aged 30, in a most shocking manner. He was considered insanely jealous. He locked the door of his bed room and with a hammer killed his wife and afterward headed her body with a saw. He then cut his throat. While under arrest he is cared for at the hospital, and it was thought late last night that he will recover. Mrs. Keeler expressed the desire yesterday morning to visit her sister Mrs. Hill, at Madisonville, and this enraged Keeler so that he would not let her get up, and after a quarrel he killed her.

Murderer Apprehended.

Philadelphia, Feb. 16.—George Nelk, of Germantown, a suburb, who is charged with the murder of his mother, Mrs. Catherine Nelk, and with murdering and assaulting his sister, Minnie, was arrested yesterday in a disreputable resort at Reading, Pa. Nelk admitted his identity when taken into custody and made no attempt to escape. Mrs. Nelk was killed in her home last Wednesday. Her skull had been crushed with a hatchet. Her daughter was found similarly injured and unconscious. She is now at the point of death in a hospital.

Strikers Are Determined.

Dover, N. H., Feb. 16.—The strike of the carders and ring spinners of the Cocheo cotton mills looks more serious than it has at any time since the men left the work Wednesday. The weavers, the mule spinners and the loom fixers' unions met separately yesterday and unanimously voted to endorse the action taken by the strikers to remain out and fight to the end.

Increase for Street Car Men.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 16.—The Massachusetts Electric companies, controlling all the electric street car lines in Eastern Massachusetts outside of Boston, have granted the request of the employees for increased wages. The decision affects 2,522 conductors and motormen, the average increase for all being 12.18 per cent, or $151,567, based on last year's pay rolls.

Son of Brigham Young Dead.

Salt Lake, Utah, Feb. 16.—Phineas Howe Young, the youngest son of the late Brigham Young and a prominent business man of this city, died suddenly of heart disease last night, aged 41 years. He was a son of Brigham and Harriet Barney Young. He is survived by a widow and three children.

Continuing, the general said the party went from Japan to Port Arthur and thence to Pekin. General Miles' party went through Northern China to Siberia, passing through Manchuria en route, and so on to Moscow. "We were 18 days going from Pekin to Moscow," said the general. "The roads are very good and the train service excellent. The weather was very cold at times, but in my opinion it was no colder than I have experienced in our northwest. The railroads have as good roadbeds as the Union Pacific or the Canadian Pacific. From St. Petersburg we went to Paris, where we spent five days; thence to London, where we remained eight days, and so on to New York."

In Paris the general was the guest of honor at a dinner given at the residence of General Brugere, commander-in-chief of the French army. Asked as to his plans, General Miles said he was going to West Point.

INSPECTED PHILIPPINE TROOPS

Japanese Army Well Equipped With Most Modern Appliances—Railroad Service in Russia Compares Favorably With that of the United States.

New York, Feb. 16.—Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles, commanding the United States army, his wife and party arrived here yesterday on the steamship Lucania. The general, who has been abroad five months, has in that time been around the world. One feature of the trip across the Atlantic for the general was the sending of a Marconi message to King Edward, Feb. 9, when the Lucania was 80 miles from the Marconi station, at Crook Haven.

With the general were Colonel and Mrs. P. M. Maus, Henry Clark Rouse, New York; F. B. Willberg, of Cincinnati; Mrs. Miles and Sherman Hoyt, Colonel Whitney was with the party when they left this country, but returned some weeks ago. To his interviewers General Miles said:

"I have been abroad for five months. I left Sept. 11 for the Pacific Coast and there made an inspection of the forts and the coast defenses from Puget Sound to Southern California. On Oct. 1 we sailed on the transport Thomas. We stopped at Honolulu, the Sandwich Islands, and then sailed for Guam. We touched at the island and then continued to the Philippines. We spent a month there. I examined the military situation and visited the principal stations and forts and inspected the troops. There were no serious hostilities at that time. The 20,000 troops there were in fine condition."

"From the Philippines we went to Hong Kong and thence to Nagasaki and Yokohama. We visited the military academy at Tokyo. The Japanese army is very well equipped and disciplined and so is the navy. When I was there they were discussing the question of raising a large fund for the equipment of the navy. In the army they have most modern appliances. The system of inspection and routine is much the same as ours. They pay a great deal of attention to drills, physical conditions and gymnastic exercises. The corps at the Tokyo academy numbers about as many cadets as we have at West Point, and it is a well constructed and efficient corps."

Continuing, the general said the party went from Japan to Port Arthur and thence to Pekin. General Miles' party went through Northern China to Siberia, passing through Manchuria en route, and so on to Moscow. "We were 18 days going from Pekin to Moscow," said the general. "The roads are very good and the train service excellent. The weather was very cold at times, but in my opinion it was no colder than I have experienced in our northwest. DON'T DELAY. IS NEARING THE END.

It is "Putting Off" Till Some Other Day that Causes so Many Sudden Deaths.

If it's for the kidneys, liver, bladder or blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia, chronic constipation, or the weaknesses peculiar to women, the most efficient medicine known to the medical profession is Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and a very simple way to find out if you need it, is to put some urine in a glass tumbler and let it stand 24 hours; if it has a sediment or a milky, cloudy appearance, if it isropy or stringy, pale or discolored, you do not need a physician to tell you that your kidneys and bladder are badly affected.

The Rev. Theodore Hunter, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Greensburg, Ky., writes us the following:

"It gives me much pleasure to state that I have received great benefit from the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. Some time ago I had a severe attack of kidney trouble, but a few bottles of 'Favorite Remedy' have entirely removed the malady."

"Favorite Remedy" speedily cures such dangerous symptoms as pain in the back, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, burning scalding pain in passing water, the staining of linen by your urine.

It is for sale by all druggists in the New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles—less than a cent a dose. Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail. Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N. Y.

Mr. H. K. Mitchell, of New Philadelphia, O., speaks of Life Plant in the following emphatic language:

Life Plant is a wonder. We have used it in our family for nearly a year and find it to be all that is claimed for it in giving tone and vigor to the system. It certainly cures rheumatic trouble. In fact I believe it cures any disease that is reached through the blood.

We guarantee the genuineness of every TESTIMONIAL. The above was indeed a remarkable cure, but it was simple and easy when the proper method was followed. It is a notable fact in science, that disease germs can not exist in pure matter. There must be some impurity else they die. You might arrest a disease by local application, and take some poisons fatal to disease germs, but you cannot hope for a cure by that system of treatment. You must get at the cause.

Impure blood is the cause of practically ALL diseases. To cure any disease you must by some means purify the BLOOD. Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Rheumatism, Eczema, Hives, Tetter, Catarrh and Asthma, are the most familiar forms of blood diseases. Life Plant purifies the BLOOD, renews LIFE, it restores the vital element in the BLOOD. That is why it cures diseases, and prevents disease. It is nature's way. It's the common sense way. Try it NOW. DELAY IS DANGEROUS.

FIND THE HIDDEN COURTIER.

THEY REMEMBERED THE MAINE.

Four Hundred Americans Observe the Fifth Anniversary of Her Destruction.

Havana, Feb. 16.—Four hundred Americans yesterday observed the fifth anniversary of the destruction of the Maine, proceeding to where the wreck now lies with a flag draped with crape and a wreath, which was hung on the wreck as a tribute to those who lost their lives in the disaster. Representatives of the Cuban Veterans' association took part in the ceremonies and brought the finest of all the floral offerings.

The exercises were purely memorial, references calculated to revive animosities being avoided. The United States legation was not represented and the Cuban government officials decided not to attend. A government launch accompanied the procession to the wreck. United States Consul Rublee, Vice Consul Sprinker and some representatives of the United States army were present. All about the harbor American and Cuban flags were flying at half mast. The strains of the dead march, played by the band of the United States artillery corps, floated across the water as the procession made its way to the Maine. After completing the decoration of the iron wreck, a prayer was offered up by Rev. Mr. McPherson, General Nunez, the governor of Havana province, who is also the president of the Cuban Veterans' association, spoke in Spanish to the effect that the Cuban veterans would never permit such an occasion to pass without testifying their regard for those whom the Cubans were proud to regard as comrades.

Fatalities in Southern Railway Wreck.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Further investigation of the Southern Railway wreck, which occurred at Ravenscroft, Va., early yesterday morning, when the New York and Florida express dashed into an open switch, confirms the opinion that the catastrophe was of malicious origin. Mr. A. Gordon Jones, superintendent of the Washington division, says the track was in perfect shape a short time prior to the wreck, and an investigation afterward showed that the lock of the switch had been broken and taken entirely away. He is more inclined to the belief that some enemy of the road desired to wreck the train and that no robbery was intended. Both Engineer Juan Purvis, of Alexandria, Va., and Walter Wiginton, the fireman, died at their posts. The former's body was found under the engine, burned and terribly mangled. Two postal clerks, Victor P. Hammer and N. W. Borlen, living in this city were injured quite severely.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stays your urine it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail.

Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Home of Swamp-Root, Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

SUSPECTED OF MURDERING WIFE

Woman Shot from Ambush and Husband Cannot Be Located—Father Slightly Wounded.

Oh City, Pa., Feb. 16.—Mrs. Beniah Zillifro, aged 18, was shot and mortally wounded while entering the back door of her father's home at Brad's Bend, about 9 o'clock on Saturday night, and her husband, Harvey Zillifro, aged 29, is missing. He is at large and cannot be located. Until two weeks ago the pair made their home with Sylvester Rohmsner, postmaster of the place. The husband beat and choked his wife and the father drove him away. Zillifro went to Ford City, where he was employed in a livery barn. On Saturday morning was found at the rear of the Episcopal church, 200 yards away from the scene of the tragedy.

On Saturday night about 9 o'clock Mrs. Zillifro, who was at the store and postoffice with her father, accompanied him home. When they reached the rear door, the father carrying a lighted lantern, a shotgun was fired from a small shed and the woman fell. The father chased the murderer a short distance and then returned to care for his daughter, whom he carried into the house, where she died in about two hours. There were 30 lead pellets in her abdomen and stomach. The father was slightly wounded in the right arm and hand by stray shots.

Jealousy Causes Murder.

Hamilton, O., Feb. 16.—Samuel Keeler, a teamster, aged 40, yesterday killed his wife, aged 30, in a most shocking manner. He was considered insanely jealous. He locked the door of his bedroom and with a hammer killed his wife and afterward headed her body with a saw. He then cut his throat. While under arrest he is cared for at the hospital, and it was thought late last night that he will recover. Mrs. Keeler expressed the desire yesterday morning to visit her sister Mrs. Hill, at Madisonville, and this enraged Keeler so that he would not let her get up, and after a quarrel he killed her.

Murderer Apprehended.

Philadelphia, Feb. 16.—George Nelk, of Germantown, a suburb, who is charged with the murder of his mother, Mrs. Catherine Nelk, and with murdering and assaulting his sister, Minnie, was arrested yesterday in a disreputable resort at Reading, Pa. Nelk admitted his identity when taken into custody and made no attempt to escape. Mrs. Nelk was killed in her home last Wednesday. Her skull had been crushed with a hatchet. Her daughter was found similarly injured and unconscious. She is now at the point of death in a hospital.

Strikers Are Determined.

Dover, N. H., Feb. 16.—The strike of the carders and ring spinners of the Cocheco cotton mills looks more serious than it has at any time since the men left the work Wednesday. The weavers, the mule spinners and the loom fixers' unions met separately yesterday and unanimously voted to endorse the action taken by the strikers to remain out and fight to the end.

Increase for Street Car Men.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 16.—The Massachusetts Electric companies, controlling all the electric street car lines in Eastern Massachusetts outside of Boston, have granted the request of the employees for increased wages. The decision affects 2,522 conductors and motormen, the average increase for all being 12.18 per cent, or $151.567, based on last year's pay rolls.

General Miles and Party Return from Five Months' Tour.

INSPECTED PHILIPPINE TROOPS

Japanese Army Well Equipped With Most Modern Appliances—Railroad Service in Russia Compares Favorably With that of the United States.

New York, Feb. 16.—Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles, commanding the United States army, his wife and party arrived here yesterday on the steamship Lucania. The general who has been abroad five months, has in that time been around the world. One feature of the trip across the Atlantic for the general was the sending of a Marconi message to King Edward, Feb. 9, when the Lucania was 80 miles from the Marconi station, at Crook Haven.

With the general were Colonel and Mrs. P. M. Maus, Henry Clark Rouse, New York; F. B. Wilbrog, of Cincinnati; Mrs. Miles and Sherman Hoyt. Colonel Whitney was with the party when they left this country, but returned some weeks ago. To his interviewers General Miles said:

"I have been abroad for five months. I left Sept. 11 for the Pacific Coast and there made an inspection of the forts and the coast defenses from Puget Sound to Southern California. On Oct. 1 we sailed on the transport, the Sandwich Islands, and then sailed for Guam. We touched at the island and then continued to the Philippines. We spent a month there. I examined the military situation and visited the principal stations and forts and inspected the troops. There were no serious hostilities at that time. The 20,000 troops there were in fine condition.

"From the Philippines we went to Hong Kong and thence to Nagasaki and Yokohama. We visited the military academy at Tokio. The Japanese army is very well equipped and disciplined and so is the navy. When I was there they were discussing the question of raising a large fund for the equipment of the navy. In the army they have most modern appliances. The system of inspection and routine is much the same as ours. They pay a great deal of attention to drills, physical conditions and gymnastic exercises. The corps at the Tokio academy numbers about as many cadets as we have at West Point, and it is a well constructed and efficient corps."

Continuing, the general said the party went from Japan to Port Arthur and thence to Pekin. General Miles' party went through Northern China to Siberia, passing through Manchuria en route, and so on to Moscow. "We were 18 days going from Pekin to Moscow," said the general. "The roads are very good and the train service excellent. The weather was very cold at times, but in my opinion it was no colder than I have experienced in our northwest. The railroads have as good roadbeds as the Union Pacific or the Canadian Pacific. From St. Petersburg we went to Paris, where we spent five days; thence to London, where we remained eight days, and so on to New York."

"I paid a very pleasant visit to King Edward when we reached England, and was most graciously received."

In Paris the general was the guest of honor at a dinner given at the residence of General Brugere, commander-in-chief of the French army. Asked as to his plans, General Miles said he was going to West Point.

"Life Plant is a wonder. We have used it in our family for nearly a year and find it to be all that is claimed for it in giving tone and vigor to the system. It certainly cures rheumatic trouble. In fact I believe it will cure any disease that is reached through the blood."

We guarantee the genuineness of every TESTIMONIAL. The above was indeed a remarkable cure, but it was simple and easy when the proper method was followed. Only Fourteen More Working Days of the Present Session Left.

STATEHOOD BILL THE FEATURE.

Compromise Abandoned and Measure Will Be Settled in Open Fight. Only Matters of Minor Importance to Be Considered Today.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The senate still finds itself burdened with the statehood bill, and while just as anxious to dispose of it in some way, in order to proceed unimpeded with other business, it is not even as confident of being able to do so as at the beginning of last week. With only 14 working days of the session left, senators generally feel that the matter must be gotten out of the way, but when a suggestion of this kind is made the reply invariably is that not withstanding the statehood bill has held the right of way position practically during the entire session, there has been no lack of legislation, and that all bills to which there has not been serious opposition have been passed and that not a single appropriation bill has been delayed for a moment by the statehood bill. The feeling is none the less strong, however, that the statehood bill will be seriously in the way at the close of the session unless disposed of very soon. There are still numerous appropriation bills to be considered. Senator Cullom wants to call up various treaties; Senator Lodge is anxious over the fate of the Philippine bills; Senators Penrose and Fairbanks are clamoring for time for the Immigration bill; Senator Aldrich wants his national bank bill considered; Senator McComas is urging the eighth-hour bill; Senator Quarles the land entry bill, and Senator Warren his omnibus claims bill. Indeed, there is scarcely a senator who has not some measure which he desires to press, and all feel that the statehood bill may be in the way of consideration. Senator Quay, moreover, Saturday gave notice that he would insist on having the statehood bill taken up promptly after the close of routine morning business each day in order to cut off other measures. All thought of compromise on the statehood matter apparently has been abandoned, and no course except to fight it out now seems open. The Democrats have refused absolutely to accept a compromise which would link Arizona with New Mexico, and Senator Quay has decided not to make any agreement which would not be satisfactory to his allies. His intention, therefore, is to "stay with the bill to the end," and the question now awaiting his decision is whether or not to adopt the bold and hazardous course of pressing the measure as a rider or amendment to one of the appropriation bills.

It is expected that the postoffice bill as amended by including the statehood proposition will be reported to the senate on Tuesday or Wednesday, and Senator Mason, chairman of the postoffice committee, announces that it is his purpose to ask for almost immediate consideration. The chief supporters of the two important treaties now before the senate, the Panama canal treaty and the Cuban reciprocity treaty, are greatly puzzled over the situation. The statehood bill stands squarely across their respective pathways. After allowing one day for consideration of the Panama treaty, Senator Quay has declined to yield any more time, and as a consequence Senator Cullom, who is in charge of both treaties, finds the end of the senate approaching without seeing his way clear to get either treaty ratified. The present purpose is not to attempt to take up the Cuban treaty until the Panama treaty is out of the way. Most of the Democratic senators and two or three Republican senators will vote against the Cuban agreement, but if a vote can be reached it is believed that it will be ratified. Today the Indian appropriation bill will be taken up again and its consideration probably concluded.

House Forecast. The appropriation bills are well advanced in the house for this stage of the session. With less than three weeks of the session ahead, only three of the supply bills remain to be acted on. Two of these, the naval and fortification bills, are on the calendar and will be passed this week. The general deficiency bill will follow next week. Delays on these bills in the senate, however, now promise to crowd things during the final hours. The Fowler currency bill, which has been postponed from time to time, is to have a special rule making it a continuing order at the first opportunity this week. But if it reaches the stage of consideration it will be sidetracked when an appropriation bill or conference report is ready. Consequently considerable skepticism is now manifested as to whether it will be brought to a vote. Today is suspension day, but only matters of minor importance will be considered. Mr. Moon (Dem., Tenn.) still refuses assent to requests for unanimous consent because the Indian territory bill is not given consideration, and his course compels recourse to suspension day for bridge bills and other minor measures which usually go through by unanimous consent.

Four Hundred Americans Observe the Fifth Anniversary of Her Destruction.

Havana, Feb. 16.—Four hundred Americans yesterday observed the fifth anniversary of the destruction of the Maine, proceeding to where the wreck now lies with a flag draped with crape and a wreath, which was hung on the wreck as a tribute to those who lost their lives in the disaster. Representatives of the Cuban Veterans' association took part in the ceremony and brought the finest of all the floral offerings.

The exercises were purely memorial, references calculated to revive animosities being avoided. The United States legation was not represented and the Cuban government officials decided not to attend. A government launch accompanied the procession to the wreck. United States Consul Rublee, Vice Consul Springer and some representatives of the United States army were present. All about the harbor American and Cuban flags were flying at half mast. The strains of the dead march, played by the band of the United States artillery corps, floated across the water as the procession made its way to the Maine. After completing the decoration of the forlorn wreck, a prayer was offered up by Rev. Mr. McPherson, General Nunez, the governor of Havana province, who is also the president of the Cuban Veterans' association, spoke in Spanish to the effect that the Cuban veterans would never permit such an occasion to pass without testifying their regard for those whom the Cubans were proud to regard as comrades.

Fatalities in Southern Railway Wreck. Washington, Feb. 16.—Further investigation of the Southern Railway wreck, which occurred at Ravensworth, Va., early yesterday morning, when the New York and Florida express dashed into an open switch, confirms the opinion that the catastrophe was of malicious origin. Mr. A. Gordon Jones, superintendent of the Washington division, says the track was in perfect shape a short time prior to the wreck, and an investigation afterward showed that the lock of the switch had been broken and taken entirely away. He is more inclined to the belief that some enemy of the road desired to wreck the train and that no robbery was intended. Both Engineer John Purvis, of Alexandria, Va., and Walter Wighton, the fireman, died at their posts. The former's body was found under the engine, burned and terribly mangled. Two postal clerks, Victor P. Hammer and N. W. Borden, living in this city were injured quite severely.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It. How to Find Out. Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours. A sediment or getting thick indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it is evidence of kidney trouble, too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also evidence of it.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or acid effects following use of liquor, and it cures and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Sons of Swamp-Root, Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Strikers Are Determined. Dover, N. H., Feb. 16.—The strike of the carders and ring spinners of the Cochecho cotton mills looks more serious than it has at any time since the men left the work Wednesday. The weavers, the mule spinners and the loom fixers' unions met separately yesterday and unanimously voted to endorse the action taken by the strikers to remain out and fight to the end.

Increase for Street Car Men. Boston, Mass., Feb. 16.—The Massachusetts Electric companies, controlling all the electric street car lines in Eastern Massachusetts outside of Boston, have granted the request of the employees for increased wages. The decision affects 2,522 conductors and motormen, the average increase for all being 12.18 per cent, or $154,567, based on last year's pay rolls.

Son of Brigham Young Dead. Salt Lake, Utah, Feb. 16.—Phineas Howe Young, the youngest son of the late Brigham Young and a prominent business man of this city, died suddenly of heart disease last night, aged 41 years. Woman Shot from Ambush and Husband Cannot Be Located—Father Slightly Wounded. Oil City, Pa., Feb. 16.—Mrs. Beniah Zillfro, aged 18, was shot and mortally wounded while entering the back door of her father's home at Brad's Bend, about 9 o'clock on Saturday night, and her husband, Harvey Zillfro, aged 29, is missing. He is a large and cannot be located.

Until two weeks ago the pair made their home with Sylvester Rohmmer, postmaster of the place. Then the husband beat and choked his wife and the father drove him away. Zillfro went to Ford City, where he was employed in a livery barn. On Saturday he hired a team there, which yesterday morning was found at the rear of the Episcopal church, 200 yards away from the scene of the tragedy.

On Saturday night about 9 o'clock Mrs. Zillfro, who was at the store and postoffice with her father, accompanied him home. When they reached the rear door, the father carrying a lighted lantern, a shotgun was fired from a small shed and the woman fell. The father chased the murderer a short distance and then returned to care for his daughter, whom he carried into the house, where she died in about two hours. There were 30 lead pellets in her abdomen and stomach. The father was slightly wounded in the right arm and hand by stray shots.

Jealousy Causes Murder. Hamilton, O., Feb. 16.—Samuel Keeler, a teamster, aged 40, yesterday killed his wife, aged 30, in a most shocking manner. He was considered insanely jealous. He locked the door of his bed room and with a hammer killed his wife and afterward headed her body with a saw. He then cut her throat. While under arrest he is cared for at the hospital, and it was thought late last night that he would recover. Mrs. Keeler expressed the desire yesterday morning to visit her sister Mrs. Hill, at Madisonville, and this enraged Keeler so that he would not let her get up, and after a quarrel he killed her.

Murderer Apprehended. Philadelphia, Feb. 16.—George Nelk, of Germantown, a suburb, who is charged with the murder of his mother, Mrs. Catherine Nelk, and with murdering and assaulting his sister, Minnie, was arrested yesterday in a disreputable resort at Reading, Pa. Nelk admitted his identity when taken into custody and made no attempt to escape. Mrs. Nelk was killed in her home last Wednesday. Her skull had been crushed with a hatchet. Her daughter was found similarly injured and unconscious. She is now at the point of death in a hospital.

General Miles and Party Return from Five Months' Tour.

INSPECTED PHILIPPINE TROOPS

Japanese Army Well Equipped With Most Modern Appliances—Railroad Service in Russia Compares Favorably With that of the United States.

New York, Feb. 16.—Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles, commanding the United States army, his wife and children arrived here yesterday on the steamship Lucania. The general, who has been abroad five months, has in that time been around the world.

One feature of the trip across the Atlantic for the general was the sending of a Marconi message to King Edward, Feb. 9, when the Lucania was 80 miles from the Marconi station, at Crook Haven.

With the general were Colonel and Mrs. P. M. Maus, Henry Clark House, New York; E. B. Wilburg, of Cincinnati; Mrs. Miles and Sherman Hoyt, Colonel Whitney was with the party when they left this country, but returned some weeks ago. To his interviewers General Miles said:

"I have been abroad five months. I left Sept. 11 for the Pacific Coast and there made an inspection of the forts and the coast defenses from Puget Sound to Southern California. On Oct. 1 we sailed on the transport Thomas. We stopped at Honolulu, the Sandwich Islands, and then sailed for Guam. We touched at the island and then continued to the Philippines. We spent a month there. I examined the military situation and visited the principal stations and forts and inspected the troops. There were no serious hostilities at that time. The 20,000 troops there were in fine condition."

"From the Philippines we went to Hong Kong and thence to Nagasaki and Yokohama. We visited the military academy at Tokyo. The Japanese army is very well equipped and disciplined and so is the navy. When I was there they were discussing the question of raising a large fund for the equipment of the navy. In the army they have most modern appliances. The system of inspection and routine is much the same as ours. They pay a great deal of attention to drills, physical conditions and gymnastic exercises. The corps at the Tokyo academy numbers about as many cadets as we have at West Point, and it is a well constructed and efficient corps."

Continuing, the general said the party went from Japan to Port Arthur and thence to Peking. General Miles' party went through Northern China to Siberia, passing through Manchuria en route, and so on to Moscow. "We were 18 days going from Peking to Moscow," said the general. "The roads are very good and the train service excellent. The weather was very cold at times, but in my opinion it was no colder than I have experienced in our northwest. The railroads have as good roadbeds as the Union Pacific or the Canadian Pacific. From St. Petersburg we went to Paris, where we spent five days; thence to London, where we remained eight days, and so on to New York."

"I paid a very pleasant visit to King Edward when we reached England, and was most graciously received."

In Paris the general was the guest of honor at a dinner given at the residence of General Brugere, commander-in-chief of the French army. Asked as to his plans, General Miles said he was going to West Point.

AN IMPRESSIVE MEMORIAL SERVICE

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS HONOR GEORGE DE TEMPLE DEAD.

Fitting Ceremonies in Which Members of the Order Took Part Yesterday.

The memorial services held yesterday afternoon by the Knights of Columbus for the late George De Temple were beautiful and impressive. Deigned, as they were, to perpetuate the name of the departed comrade, the services will be long remembered by those in attendance. There was silence in the great hall when Secretary Robert Wheatley, calling the roll, came to the name of George De Temple. Three times the name was called and then came the response, "Absent."

The service was opened with a piano voluntary by Miss Elizabeth Hamill. The St. Aloysius' choir then sang the chorus from Gounod's "Miserere." Miss Kate McKeever then sang a beautiful solo and Grand Knight James H. Grafton delivered the opening address. He said in part:

"The name of our beloved brother has been called and we vainly await an answer, but another has responded in his stead. This absence means death. The death angel has called and he is gone from among us. The mother church had told him that some day he would be called, and he had prepared for the time. He will not return and we will know him no more. We meet here this evening to commemorate his memory. He has gone to accept a crown of glory and the consolation is sweet that in heaven we will know our own."

"Comfort ye my people," was a tenor solo beautifully rendered by A. A. Taylor, after which District Deputy Thomas J. Duffy delivered the principal address of the service. He said in part:

"The angel did not look over our list and choose one who had worn out life. He touched one in the morning of life, wrapped his cloak about him and smothered life as a flower is withered by the blast of winter. Only a short time ago we were called together on a similar occasion, and he whom we mourn today was in our midst. Little did he think that he would be the next to go. As we think of these things we can realize the words: 'The leaves have a time to fall, the flowers to wither and the sun to set, but thou hast thine own time, O Death.'"

"It is with the purpose of helping us to avoid the errors of life that we dwell on the character of the one for whom we mourn tonight. He possessed both ambition and ability and had he lived he would have made a shining mark in this world. While he was ambitious he did not forget his God, and while he wished for the good things of this world it was also his wish to gain them and still be an influence for good. We regret that he has gone from us, but he has gone to his reward."

A Valentine Party.

Miss Rachel Nowell entertained eleven of her friends at an elaborate 6 o'clock dinner on Saturday evening. The event was a valentine party and will long be remembered. The decorations were very beautiful, being hearts in every possible design, and the arrangement of the table was also unique and pretty. The game of "Unweaving" was played and was one of the enjoyable features of the evening.

AN EXPERIENCED MAN

Is the Sort Needed in Council—A Tax-Payer's Pertinent Words.

The government of our city under the new code invests in the council, certain powers that makes the office one of responsibility. In order that we get the best results for the general public, we should elect men who have had experience with the affairs of the city. In my opinion it is not a time to try out new material, but we must elect a man who knows just where to begin, and is able in every way to take up the work and carry it forward in a satisfactory manner. As a taxpayer, and a man of experience it is my opinion the people of this community would make no mistake in placing D. M. McLane in the council.

CONCISE AND COMPREHENSIVE.

Department of Commerce Has Complete Authority to Investigate Methods—Attorney General Knox Expresses His Views.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Attorney General Knox, who is known to have prepared the important features of the anti-trust bills now enacted into laws, on being asked as to how they were regarded by the administration, said:

"The legislation affecting the trusts passed at this session of congress is satisfactory to the administration and the prompt response to the president's requests is highly gratifying. A very long stride in advance has been accomplished and the promises of last fall have been made good."

"The giving and taking of railroad rebates is now prohibited by a law capable of effective enforcement against corporations as well as individuals, and the courts of the United States are clothed with jurisdiction to restrain and punish violations."

"The act creating the department of commerce vests in that department complete authority to investigate the organization and business methods of corporations engaged in interstate and foreign commerce and to that end to compel the testimony of persons having the desired knowledge. The legislation is concise in its terms, but very comprehensive in its scope. Under its provisions a fair opportunity will be afforded to test the effect upon the tendency towards industrial monopoly of its guarantees of no favors for the great producer as against the small one."

"Discretion is lodged in the president as to the publication of facts to be publicly known and a wise administration of the law promises much that is helpful and nothing that is harmful."

"The law to expedite the hearing of cases and giving an appeal directly to the supreme court from the court of first instance assures within a reasonable time authoritative decisions upon important pending questions in the knowledge of which future legislation, if necessary, can be confidently framed."

"Upon the whole, the situation is eminently satisfactory and is the result of concessions, modifications of views and forms of expressions upon the part of many earnest and thoughtful men, who have endeavored within a very brief session to meet a rational public demand in a rational and effective way."

Didn't Like the New Way

When civilization reached Pine Hill City, a bank was established, and one of the first customers was old man Johnson. A few days later he wanted money and entered the place with a gun in his hand.

"Want some money today?" queried the president. "Well, it's ready for you."

"Say, I don't understand," exclaimed the old man as he backed off. "I'm here to hold this bank up for $30."

"But you don't have to. Just sign this check, and I'll hand over your money."

"And I don't yell or shoot?"

"No."

"And the sheriff don't come after me?"

"No. Put your name to this."

"I can't do it—can't do it, nohow," said the old man, with a choke in his voice. "If that's the new way of doing things, I'm out of it. I want my money, but I want it in the old way."

"Well, have it the old way, then."

The old man tramped forward to the cashier's window, rested the muzzle of his gun on the ledge and yelled out: "Come down or you are a dead man!"

"Certainly. Here's thirty."

"And—and is that all there is to it?"

"That's all."

"Then I'll be hanged if I want it," he said, and he threw the money back and went outdoors and sat down on a barrel of sugar in front of a grocery and shed tears.

"Yes."

"Well, you send up six bags of oats, and hurry up with 'em."

AN IMPRESSIVE MEMORIAL SERVICE

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS HONOR GEORGE DE TEMPLE DEAD.

Fitting Ceremonies in Which Members of the Order Took Part Yesterday.

The memorial services held yesterday afternoon by the Knights of Columbus for the late George De Temple were beautiful and impressive. De Temple, as they were, to perpetuate the name of the departed comrade, the services will be long remembered by those in attendance. AN IMPRESSIVE MEMORIAL SERVICE

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS HONOR GEORGE DE TEMPLE DEAD.

Fitting Ceremonies in Which Members of the Order Took Part Yesterday.

The memorial services held yesterday afternoon by the Knights of Columbus for the late George De Temple were beautiful and impressive. De Temple, as they were, to perpetuate the name of the departed comrade, the services will be long remembered by those in attendance. There was silence in the great hall when Secretary Robert Wheatley, calling the roll, came to the name of George De Temple. Three times the name was called and then came the response, "Absent."

The service was opened with a piano voluntary by Miss Elizabeth Hamill. The St. Aloysius choir then sang the chorus from Gounod's "Miserere." Miss Kate McKeever then sang a beautiful solo and Grand Knight James H. Gratton delivered the opening address. He said in part:

"The name of our beloved brother has been called and we vainly await an answer, but another has responded in his stead. This absence means death. The death angel has called and he is gone from among us. The mother church had told him that some day he would be called, and he had prepared for the time. He will not return and we will know him no more. We meet here this evening to commemorate his memory. He has gone to accept a crown of glory and the consolation is sweet that in heaven we will know our own."

"Comfort ye my people," was a tenor solo beautifully rendered by A. A. Taylor, after which District Deputy Thomas J. Duffy delivered the principal address of the service. He said in part:

"The angel did not look over our list and choose one who had worn out life. He touched one in the morning of life, wrapped his cloak about him and smothered life as a flower is withered by the blast of winter. Only a short time ago we were called together on a similar occasion, and he whom we mourn today was in our midst. Little did he think that he would be the next to go. As we think of these things we can realize the words: 'The leaves have a time to fall, the flowers to wither and the sun to set, but thou hast thine own time, O Death.'"

"It is with the purpose of helping us to avoid the errors of life that we dwell on the character of the one for whom we mourn tonight. He possessed both ambition and ability and had he lived he would have made a shining mark in this world. While he was ambitious he did not forget his God, and while he wished for the good things of this world it was also his wish to gain them and still be an influence for good. We regret that he has gone from us, but he has gone to his reward."

A Valentine Party.

Miss Rachel Newell entertained eleven of her friends at an elaborate 6 o'clock dinner on Saturday evening. The event was a valentine party and will long be remembered. The decorations were very beautiful, being hearts in every possible design, and the arrangement of the table was also unique and pretty. The game of "Unweaving" was played and was one of the enjoyable features of the evening.

"The government of our city under the new code invests in the council, certain powers that makes the office one of responsibility. In order that we get the best results for the general public, we should elect men who have had experience with the affairs of the city. In my opinion it is not a time to try out new material, but we must elect a man who knows just where to begin, and is able in every way to take up the work and carry it forward in a satisfactory manner. As a taxpayer, and a man of experience it is my opinion the people of this community would make no mistake in placing D. M. McLane in the council. FOURTH WARDER. 39-h

Administration Pleased With Legislation Affecting the Trusts.

CONCISE AND COMPREHENSIVE.

Department of Commerce Has Complete Authority to Investigate Methods—Attorney General Knox Expresses His Views.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Attorney General Knox, who is known to have prepared the important features of the anti-trust bills now enacted into laws, on being asked as to how they were regarded by the administration, said:

"The legislation affecting the trusts passed at this session of congress is satisfactory to the administration, and the prompt response to the president's requests is highly gratifying. A very long stride in advance has been accomplished and the promises of last fall have been made good."

"The giving and taking of railroad rebates is now prohibited by a law capable of effective enforcement against corporations as well as individuals, and the courts of the United States are clothed with jurisdiction to restrain and punish violations."

"The act creating the department of commerce vests in that department complete authority to investigate the organization and business methods of corporations engaged in interstate and foreign commerce and to that end to compel the testimony of persons having the desired knowledge. The legislation is concise in its terms, but very comprehensive in its scope. Under its provisions a fair opportunity will be afforded to test the effect upon the tendency towards industrial monopoly of its guarantees of no favors for the great producer as against the small one."

"Discretion is lodged in the president as to the publication of facts to be publicly known, and a wise administration of the law promises much that is helpful and nothing that is harmful."

"The law to expedite the hearing of cases and giving an appeal directly to the supreme court from the court of first instance assures within a reasonable time authoritative decisions upon important pending questions in the knowledge of which future legislation, if necessary, can be confidently framed."

"Upon the whole, the situation is eminently satisfactory and is the result of concessions, modifications of views and forms of expressions upon the part of many earnest and thoughtful men, who have endeavored within a very brief session to meet a rational public demand in a rational and effective way."

Didn't Like the New Way

When civilization reached Pine Hill City, a bank was established, and one of the first customers was old man Johnson. A few days later he wanted money and entered the place with a gun in his hand.

"Want some money today?" queried the president. "Well, it's ready for you."

"Say, I don't understand," exclaimed the old man as he backed off. "I'm here to hold this bank up for $30."

"But you don't have to. Just sign this check, and I'll hand over your money."

"And I don't yell or shoot?"

"No."

"And the sheriff don't come after me?"

"No. Put your name to this."

"I can't do it—can't do it, nohow," said the old man, with a choke in his voice. "If that's the new way of doing things, I'm out of it. I want my money, but I want it in the old way."

"Well, have it the old way, then."

The old man tramped forward to the cashier's window, rested the muzzle of his gun on the ledge and yelled out: "Come down or you are a dead man!"

"Certainly. Here's thirty."

"And—and is that all there is to it?"

"That's all."

"Then I'll be hanged if I want it," he said, and he threw the money back and went outdoors and sat down on a barrel of sugar in front of a grocery and shed tears.

Naturally.

As a gentleman was stepping from his carriage in Harrisburg to take the train for Philadelphia his coachman said, "The oats are getting low, sir."

"Very well," said the gentleman. "You telephone Miller & Jones to send up some."

Mike went to the telephone, when the following conversation took place: "Is this Miller & Jones?"

"Yes."

"Well, you send up six bags of oats, and hurry up with 'um."

"All right. Who are they for?"

"Arrah, now, don't you get gay—for the horses, to be sure." And Mike rang off.—Philadelphia Ledger.

SANK TO HIS DEATH IN THE ICY WATERS

Towboat Deck Hand Slipped, Fell Into the Water
and Was Instantly Drowned
in a Deep Hole.

ACCIDENT HAPPENED NEAR WELLSVILLE TODAY

While in the act of passing coal in a wheelbarrow from a fuel flat to the firebox of the towboat T. M. Pfeil, which was plying in the Ohio river a mile on this side of Wellsville toward Pittsburg this morning, an unknown deckhand slipped on an icy plank and before he could save himself or others could give assistance he fell overboard and sank immediately to the bottom of the river.

A moment after the accident the boat was stopped and every deckhand aboard was set to work dragging the river for the unfortunate man's body, but to no avail. He had sunk in one of the deepest holes in the river, which is deeper than ever now as the result of the decided rise. The search was continued for more than an hour, after which the captain gave up hopes and ordered the crew to cease the search. The towboat by this time had floated back to Wellsville and the river men around the ferry landing were notified of the accident with instructions to keep a watchful eye for any floating body.

Having performed his duty at that point the captain had the boat started on its trip up the river. When it reached this city he came ashore and going to the office of Squire McCarron, according to the marine law, swore to an affidavit of how the man met his death. The document will be forwarded to the United States authorities at Wheeling.

The captain stated that the drowned man was about 25 years of age, one of the best workmen that he had on the boat, and that he shipped February 2 at Pittsburg to make the trip to Cincinnati and return. He was not talkative and had not given his name or any of his history to any of his associate laborers.

PROMINENT PEOPLE IN ATTENDANCE

State Treasurer I. B. Cameron and Wife Agreeably Entertained Friends.

Columbus, February 15.—(Special.)—Hon. and Mrs. I. B. Cameron on Saturday evening very pleasantly entertained a party of friends at their pretty home on Neil avenue, this city. Military euche was played and refreshments were served. The residence was tastefully decorated with flags, bunting and portraits of celebrated Americans, notably George and Martha Washington, Garfield, McKinley and others.

Hon. Lewis C. Laylin, secretary of state, and Mrs. Laylin; Hon. Joseph Blackburn, state dairy and food commissioner, and Mrs. Blackburn, and Hon. H. M. Daugherty, who was a candidate for governor in the convention which nominated Judge Nash, and Mrs. Daugherty were among the guests present.

It was one of the most delightful social functions of the season.

PAINFULLY BURNED

Mrs. John Seanor, of West Market Street, the Victim of Blazing Gasoline.

Mrs. John Seanor, West Market street, met with a very painful accident Saturday evening while at work in the kitchen at her home. She had poured a quantity of gasoline in a bucket containing hot water, and in some unexplainable way the gasoline ignited.

Mrs. Seanor was painfully burned about the face and arms, but her face was saved from injury by the fact that she was looking in another direction when the flames sprang up. A heavy shawl about her head protected her hair. Dr. Ogden was called and dressed her injuries.

HALL CAINE IN HIS STUDY.

This picture, which shows the famous Manx novelist and playwright in his study, was made from a recent photograph. Hall Caine is a hard worker, but while he is putting the finishing touches to a new novel or laying out the scenario of a play he makes himself as comfortable as possible. He is one of the most fortunate literary men living. Each one of his stories does double duty. It has a great sale in book form and then the author turns it into a play and usually scores an immense success. As a novelist and dramatist he probably makes more money than any other literary man of today.

FOUND HELPLESS AND BLEEDING

Levi Burrows Believed to Have Been Brutally
Assaulted and Robbed.

With blood oozing from numerous wounds inflicted on his face and head and in an unconscious condition Levi Burrows, employed as an oddman at the D. E. McNicol pottery, was found lying motionless over the hill near the brewery at an early hour Saturday evening.

A member of the Bailey household living nearby heard the man scream and saw him when he fell backward over the embankment. She immediately summoned the police and Officers Woods and Betteridge answered. They had difficulty in reviving the prostrate man and were unable to get a statement out of him as to how his accident occurred. They did not argue this point long, however, as he was in a bad shape and hurried him to the city hall, where he was placed in the women's apartment and Dr. Ogden was called. The wounds were of a serious nature and considerable time was consumed in dressing the injuries.

He had sufficiently recovered yesterday morning to talk of his terrible experience, and at first stated that he had been held up by two robust men, they attacking him from the rear, robbing him of all his money and then knocking him over the hill. An hour or so later he denied the first story, stating that he was simply drunk and fell over the embankment as the result of awkwardness.

Why his stories should conflict is not known. He evidently has some reason for making the retraction. It is believed that his first story was the correct one. It is substantiated by a Miss Bailey, who says that she saw two men knock him down and commit the robbery. It was one of the most brutal that has come to the notice of the police in months, and an especial effort will be made to apprehend the guilty ones.

PUBLIC BUILDING SITE FOR EAST LIVERPOOL

A Bill Introduced Appropriating $25,000 for the Proposed Purchase.

Washington, February 15.—(Special.)—Representative Mercer, chairman of the committee on public buildings and grounds, on Saturday introduced a bill authorizing $6,000,000 for new buildings, etc. East Liverpool under this bill gets a $25,000 appropriation for purchase of site.

The bill cuts down Representative Taylor's proposed appropriation for the purpose, which was $30,000. Having been favorably recommended it will probably pass. An option has been taken for $30,000 on the William Brunt property on Broadway, which was considered a most desirable site. Should it be taken, it would be necessary to secure an additional appropriation or make up the other $5,000 in some other way.

DECLARED A BANKRUPT

Proceedings in the Case of S. E. Strickline, Well Known in This City.

S. E. Strickline, of this city, has filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy. The assets are placed at $500 and the liabilities $11,024.93. He has been declared a bankrupt by C. D. LOCAL POLICE AID IS MUCH DESIRED

Italian Shooter from Steubenville Thought to Have Come This Way.

The local police and those at Wellsville have been notified by Steubenville officers to be on the lookout for Fred- erico Deangelo, who, it is alleged, fired the pistol shot that resulted in the serious injury of John Loviche and the probably fatal injury to Tony Ponce. The latter is lying at the point of death and his attending physicians say that only by the hand of Providence can he recover.

The shooting occurred Friday morning on one of the principal streets of Steubenville, and it is said was done without the least provocation, Deangelo being crazed by an over-indulgence in whisky. Immediately after the exciting affair the police of that city started on a search for the son of Italy, but he had made good his escape. He was traced a few miles above Steubenville Saturday by Marshal Scott and others, but when near Toronto the trail was lost. He having friends in Wellsville and this city, it is believed that he is in hiding in this vicinity.

The description of the man is lacking in every detail, and it will be only by the efforts and assistance of his Italian brothers that he will ever be located. He does not speak English and knows very little of the American ways, except the use of fire arms and the destruction of booze.

THE EXISTENCE OF HEAVEN AND HELL

One As Certain As the Other If
We Believe the Words
of the Bible.

INDIVIDUALS MUST CHOOSE

Where They Will Spend Eternity.
A Strikingly Strong and Able Sermon Preached by Dr. Lloyd at St.
Stephen's Church.

St. Stephen's Episcopal church has never accommodated a more appreciative or more highly pleased audience than that which assembled last evening to hear Rev. Dr. Lloyd, of Cleveland, the eminent divine who during the past week conducted as missionary the parochial mission services, and who, as on his visit to this city four years ago, has drawn the members of the church into close relationship and made himself beloved by all.

The last service of which the missioner will have charge will be held this evening at the usual hour, and it will be with a feeling of deepest regret that the congregation tell him goodbye. Dr. Lloyd's personal magnetism, his easy manner in approaching one and his words, always of sympathy and instructiveness, have elicited for him high regard and esteem.

The subject chosen for last evening's service was one of more than usual interest. It is one that leads to a warm debate every time that it is presented. There are few who have certain knowledge of the subject, and the missioner freely acknowledged that his versions were taken solely from the bible, the book which stands before the people as the true doctrine of God. The conclusions drawn from the teachings of God's word on the subject were forcible and will leave a deep impression on all who heard them. With an eloquence inspired only by his increased love for the members of the church, Dr. Lloyd on "Heaven and Hell, Where They Are and Who Go There," said in part:

"The present age is cursed with sentimentality. It makes us weak, to the minds of the conservative and educated it is not only disgusting but sickening. It is a bad sign. A murderer or a suicide receiving the admiration of the people. Just think what it means. I pronounce such display of sentiment not good for the race. Sentiment believes in heaven, it bubbles over with it, but it does not believe in hell. Those possessed of this sentiment which is cursing the nation will sit and listen to talk of heaven but not one word about hell will they tolerate. Now the evidence that we have is as conclusive; that there is a hell as that there is a heaven. Why then should we allow ourselves to believe in the one and discard the other?"

"Hell is agony indestructible. It is pain, it is fire, it is death and more. It reaches many times beyond our most liberal determinations as to its awfulness. In it is everlasting punishment. What is hell? We understand that it is a place created for the devil and his angels. God took pity on them when they were cast from heaven and prepared a place for them. It is a bottomless pit, utter darkness, a place where fire is not quenched, a place where are heard weeping, wailing and the gnashing of teeth. This description is given us by God and the words are not alone of a fanatical preacher.

"Believing in God as we do, why do we not believe that hell is all that the above describes? The agony of hell is eternally intolerable. Yes, there is a hell, an awful hell, designed by the devil and his angels for eternal misery. Where is it? I don't know. There are, however, places on the earth that won't miss the description far. Who will go to hell? Anybody who so chooses. They will go who finally and willfully reject Christ. Satan was cast out because he rebelled against God. The same fate awaits the human race. When we once become convinced and do not accept God all that is necessary for us to land in the darkness of hades is to continue on the same path.

"Hell is for cowards, for the unclean, for murderers, the untruthful, the indifferent, for the willful sinners. Where such people as those go I would advise you not to go. Heaven is more magnificent than words can express. We are told of its rivers, trees, fruits, birds, all described so

W. H. Moore Asks Police Aid in Locating Miss Elizabeth Rolley, Accused of Taking $50.

If the allegations made by her brother-in-law are true Miss Elizabeth Rolley, one of Wellsville's winsome and prettiest young ladies, has committed an act which her numerous friends and acquaintances will deeply deplore and which will land her in the hands of the police at Pittsburg.

According to the relative, W. H. Moore, a railroad engineer, of Steubenville street, Wellsville, she on Friday evening stole from him money and other valuables amounting to $50 and has not been seen since by Wellsville people. Officer McDermott was appealed to by Mr. Moore to make a search in this city for her and it was but a short time before the officer was on the right trail. He found that she had been in East Liverpool Friday night and that she had left the city

Saturday morning for Pittsburg. Mr. Moore was given the result of the officer's findings and he at once telephoned the police at Pittsburg asking them to place her under arrest. They consented to search for her, but up to noon today no word had been received of success.

Mr. Moore was in the city again this afternoon and at mayor's office stated that he was going after the girl, thinking he knows where she is staying. She has an aunt in Pittsburg and more than likely she will be found with her. The local officers have been requested to arrest and lock her up if seen here.

In society circles in Wellsville, Miss Rolley was of high standing and her alleged actions cannot be accounted for by those who know her.

PATROL WAGON WAS ON THE GO

MAYOR DAVIDSON HAD A MOTLEY
CROWD BEFORE HIM.

Row in Gypsy Camp Varies the Usual
Monotonous Story of Drunks.

There was an air of business in police circles Saturday night and Sunday. For the first time in weeks the patrol wagon was busy and as a result Mayor Davidson had a fair-sized lineup before him today. Gypsy fortune tellers and horse traders arrived in the city the first of last week, locating in the West End, near the ball park. They had little trouble in carrying out their games among the residents, and Saturday evening decided to jollify over the success.

John Morgan and his son Joseph, it seems, were the most jubilant and made the most noise. They filled up in uptown saloons and when they arrived at camp turned the quietude into an old-time Indian war dance. While in the midst of their jollifications Officers Dunn and Woods appeared on the scene and escorted the ringleaders to the city hall. They were fined $6.00.

William Hanna was drunk. He tried in vain to escape the ever-watchful eye of Officer Aufderheide. The officer detected him as he was attempting to place a tree in front of him and in a short time had him at the city jail. He paid a fine of $1 and costs.

Thomas Creedon was nabbed by Officer Woods. He was making an effort to carry booze and soon discovered that he was a miserable failure at performing such a feat. He also paid $5.00.

Officer McDermott landed William Poser. William does not get drunk very often and upon this occasion would not have done so had they not come so thick and fast that he lost all control of himself. His assessment was the usual one.

EAST LIVERPOOL MEN ON THE PACIFIC COAST

A Number of Street Car Operatives from Here Now Located at Los Angeles.

California seems to offer irresistible attractions for many East Liverpool people, particularly the street car operatives and in the past few months quite a number have gone to this far western state to make if their home. Charles Kontnifer, president of the local street car operatives' union, recently received a letter from one of the boys that gave some interesting facts about the East Liverpool colony.

Morrison Smith is a motorman on the Pasadena & Los Angeles traction line and David Brown is on the run with him as a conductor. Tom Atkinson is a motorman on the line in Los Angeles. Ira Goddard is a motorman on one of the San Francisco lines.

All are well pleased with the country and their situations, and have no thoughts of returning to Ohio.

GIRL THE VICTIM OF BOLD ROBBER

Her Purse Snatched From Her Hand as She Walked Along the Street.

A TERRIFYING EXPERIENCE

Which Was Speedily Reported to the Police—They Believe They Have a Clue to the Identity of the Guilty Person.

While hurriedly walking along Jackson street shortly before 9 o'clock on Saturday evening a daughter of John C. Owens, of Sixth street, was made the victim of a holdup, the robber jumping suddenly from the darkness in an alley near the home of S. J. Cripps, seizing the young girl with one hand, grabbing her purse and making good his escape before the full realization of what had happened occurred to her.

Badly frightened, she was unable to make an outcry and the daring individual was out of sight without the least interference. Upon regaining her presence of mind the girl hastened to central police station and told her story. Officers Dawson and Mahoney immediately set out in search of the man who was described as being of medium height, wearing a black hat and a light overcoat. In the search they were unsuccessful but think they have the right man under suspicion. The amount of money stolen from Miss Owens was something over $9.

CAMERON ONE OF THE COMPANY

State Treasurer Among the Incorporators of a New Industrial Enterprise.

A REMARKABLE REVIVAL

Series of Meetings at Marion, Conducted By Major Cole, Well Known in This City, Resulted in 1,200 Conversions.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, February 16.—State Treasurer I. B. Cameron is one of the incorporators of the Columbus Chain works, which took out a charter under the laws of Delaware Friday, with $400,000 capital stock. The company has been engaged in business in this city for over two years and the action in incorporating is merely for the purpose of effecting a reorganization, with no material change in the operation of the plant. The company has been unusually busy and has an abundance of orders booked.

The revival conducted under the direction of Major J. H. Cole, at Marion, just brought to a close, is said to have been the most wonderful ever held in the state. Major Cole conducted a revival in East Liverpool several years ago with great success, hundreds professing conversion at the time. The Marion meetings started in December and lasted continuously for 68 days during which time there were over 1,200 conversions. Meetings were held in churches, stores, factories, shops, offices, in fact wherever a few men and women could gather. Major Cole is a speaker of great power. His wife and daughter aid him in revival work. His East Liverpool meetings were probably the most successful of the kind ever held in the city.

The receipts of the office of the secretary of state during the quarter ending Saturday were the heaviest in the history of the department, aggregating $91,841.12, exclusive of Willis law fees. The fees collected by the state insurance commissioner for the same quarter amounted to $337,438.11, as compared with $136,610.82 for the same quarter last year. The net cash balance in the state treasury Saturday night was $4,534,391.09, which breaks all records.

Dan R. Hanna, son of Senator Hanna, and John H. Winters, a local coal man, admitted in this city they assaulted Hon. W. G. Caldwell, a member of the West Virginia legislature at Charleston, that state, but claimed they were provoked to it by the latter's unbearable abuse. Hanna and Winters hailed a cab and Caldwell, who was

Western Democrats are reported preparing to inaugurate an aggressive silver campaign. The preliminary steps are to be taken at a Jefferson day dinner at Des Moines April 2, when W. J. Bryan is to be one of the chief orators. Any set of Democrats which proposes to make free silver a paramount issue in 1904 will waste its labor, of course, though it can cause trouble nowhere except in the Democratic party. The Republicans will gladly welcome a battle on the old lines. Bryanism, if it comes to the front again in 1904, will certainly be easier to defeat than ever, for the number of Democrats who have grown weary of it and will gladly vote it down has grown surprisingly in the past few years.

The movement to strengthen and improve the child labor laws is becoming extensive and earnest. It has now struck New York city, where the evil is probably greater than anywhere else in the country. Labor organizations are zealously interesting themselves on the side of humanity and philanthropy.

The majority is important, but not so much so that all interest and attention should be centered on that contest. The selection of good men for the board of public service and for members of council needs to be looked after most carefully.

A good deal of American money will go into the isthmian canal, but much of it will be spent for American material and expert labor. The digging of the canal will decidedly assist to maintain prosperity.

Democratic orators have been telling what Lincoln would have done had he lived. What he did to the Democracy when he was alive was a plenty.

Spring Medicine

There is no other season when good medicine is so much needed as in the Spring.

Make the blood pure, vigorous and rich, create appetite, give vitality, strength and animation, and cure all eruptions. Have the whole family begin to take them today.

Democratic harmony is just what Bryan does not desire, because if it prevailed it would keep him out of sight.

Venezuela, in the midst of her troubles, learns that she has one great and good friend. His name is Uncle Sam.

Congress has only a few days more for work, yet the senate acts as if it had an eternity for talking.

All sorts of political yarns are now current. The voters on Saturday will tell the true story.

AT THE THEATER

One of the most pleasing announcements the local theater management could have to make to the amusement loving element, is the coming of Isabel Irving in the original production of Winston Churchill's most favored of all American romances, "The Crisis," under the auspices of the theater users. Miss Irving has the complete original production with which the great Churchill play was introduced at Pittsburgh on March 3, last spring, and has since been presented with conspicuous success at St. Louis, Philadelphia and the other large cities. None of the local house scenery will be used.

Confesses to Hold Up.

Butte, Mont., Feb. 16.—George Cole, under arrest here, has made confession of the Burlington hold up of last Wednesday, and implicates George Howard, alias Joe Kirby. He says they sent a boy to a livery stable to hire a rig Tuesday night. They drove to the scene of the hold up and he'll up the train. Kirby had two guns, but was too drunk to use them. Kirby is the man who jumped on the engine as the train was nearing Homestead and compelled the engineer to stop and made the fireman get down. But for Kirby's drunken condition, Cole says, they would have met with better success. Cole and his companion were arrested Saturday because they answered the general description of the two robbers.

Advised to Copy Our Style.

Berlin, Feb. 16.—Minister of Commerce Moeller, in the course of an address to the Hanover chamber of commerce Saturday, said: "The United States will be Germany's competitor in the world's markets in the future. We must therefore learn from the Americans to adopt their business methods, the most marked feature of which is the concentration of capital and trade into trusts. The strong repugnance existing in Germany against such combinations will certainly be replaced in time by a better view, especially after the evils of the syndicates have been removed."

No Arrests Made.

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 16.—W. G. Caldwell, member of the legislature from Wheeling and chairman of the house judiciary committee, who was assaulted Saturday night, was able to get out of bed yesterday, but he was sitting up in a badly battered condition. He expects to be in his seat today in the house of deputies, when it is said that his colleague from Ohio county, Mr. Schwab, will offer a resolution to investigate the failure of local officials to serve warrants on Hanna and Winders. After Caldwell was ejected from his back Captain J. B. White and Officer Spradling went to the private car occupied by Winders and Hanna, but found it locked. As Sheriff Jarrett was on the same train, taking some prisoners to the pen, the matter of arrest was left to him when the train left, but it is charged that telegrams were afterward sent for no arrests to be made.

Chinese Smuggling Arms. Victoria, B. C., Feb. 16.—News was brought by the steamer Olympia that 1,000 sword bayonets have been seized at Chung Wang Tao. They were being imported by order of Viceroy Yan Shik Fai, who is now accused of deliberately violating the protocol between China and the powers. Extensive smuggling of weapons to arm the Chinese has been carried on in contravention of the treaty. Peking correspondents report that the emperor is imprisoned and closely guarded by the empress, who has surrounded him with a large guard since the return from the summer palace. Foreigners assembled along the route of the procession, which marked the return to Peking, were ill treated, some being arrested, including a party among whom were two women from the American legation.

Charged With Grand Larceny.

New York, Feb. 16.—On a short affidavit charging them with grand larceny the three men who were arrested by Central office detectives in raids on so-called "get-rich-quick" concerns, in Nassau street, were held in $1,000 bail each for examination today. The men arraigned are Henry C. Cartwright, William Treadwell and Charles E. Goodrich. The affidavit on which the men were held charges them with grand larceny, "on information given by several persons who complained that they feloniously obtained from them large sums of money with intent to defraud by color and aid of false and fraudulent representations."

HEAVY SNOW FALL IN THE WEST

Railroad Traffic Retarded and Telegraph Lines Damaged—Fears for Live Stock.

Guthrie, O. T., Feb. 16.—The worst storm of the winter struck Oklahoma about midnight Sunday night and has been raging with terrific fierceness ever since. Sleet and rain was followed by a driving snow storm, a cold norther accompanying. On account of their good condition no damage to cattle or wheat is expected. Rain was preceded by a dense fog, the only one known to present residents of the territory.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 16.—Snow has been falling in this city and Western Missouri at intervals during the last 30 hours and now covers the ground to the depth of seven inches, making it the heaviest fall of the winter. Through trails are generally late and street car traffic is hampered. Telegraph and telephone companies have suffered damage.

Ardmore, I. T., Feb. 16.—The worst sleet storm in years prevails throughout this section of the Indian territory. The storm began with a decided fall in temperature, following the heavy rains of the past few days. Everything in this part of the territory is covered with ice, and it is believed cattle men will suffer the loss of much stock.

Topeka, Kan., Feb. 16.—The worst blizzard of the winter prevailed over Kansas last night. Snow, accompanied by a strong north wind, fell all day yesterday and last night the temperature was near the zero mark. Cattle on the western ranges will doubtless suffer. Railroad traffic is retarded.

Lafayette, Ind., Feb. 16.—A heavy snow storm prevailed here yesterday. All trains were late, telephone wires were damaged and country roads were almost impassable.

Protocols for the Unallied.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Minister Bowen expected to begin immediately the preparations of the protocols with the representatives of the unallied powers for the settlement of the claims of the citizens of those nations who have suffered as a result of the troubles in Venezuela. There are eight of these claimant nations, including the United States. The drawing up of the protocol with this government will be the first undertaken. Solicitor Penfield, of the state department, will represent the United States in these negotiations with Mr. Bowen. Work on this protocol, it is expected, will begin today, and Mr. Bowen's belief is that matters will move forward with great rapidity than they did with the governments of the allied nations who were enforcing the blockade against Venezuela. The negotiations with France will follow those with the United States, and so on until the protocols with all the unallied creditor nations are completed. The suggestion has been made that as the unallied nations naturally are opposed to any preferential treatment to Germany, Great Britain and Italy that in all probability Venezuela, the United States and France will be lined up as representing the eight unallied nations at The Hague as opposed to the three allies.

A warm contest is looked for in the race for member of the board of public service. There are only three to elect and there are seven good men in the race. The race for constable also promises to be lively. There are two to elect and four in the race.

The Fourth ward is the only one in which there will be any opposition in the race for councilmen. Two good candidates are mentioned and both are lively in canvassing. The two candidates mentioned for member of board of education are both members at the present time, and are simply after reelection.

There was $251 taken in by the central committee in assessments of the candidates. This amount will more than cover the expense of carrying on the primary election.

Stowaways Threaten Crew.

Algiers, Feb. 16.—The Austrian steamer Margherita, Trieste and Gergent, Feb. 7, for New York, put in here yesterday and landed 18 Sicilian stowaways, who smuggled themselves aboard at Palermo. Madded by thirst the stowaways had armed themselves with knives and appeared on the deck, where they threatened to attack the officers. Muskets were dealt out to the crew, who succeeded in overawing them. The steamer then headed for Algiers, where the stowaways were handed over to the Italian consul. The Margherita proceeded on her voyage two days later.

DOGS DYING OFF AT A RAPID RATE

Fully 15 Animals, Some of Them Valuable, Have Been Killed By Poison.

The dog poisoner is at work in the upper end of Chester. During the past week no less than 15 dogs have come to an untimely end. The people in the vicinity of the Rolling Mill addition, where most of the work has been done, are up in arms and threaten to do bodily harm to the executioner if his identity can be established. The trouble first started about two weeks ago when some one shot a small pet dog belonging to Mrs. Robert Dunn, which was prized very highly.

From that time the dogs in the neighborhood have been dying at the rate of about one a day, some of them being valuable ones, and every effort is being made to discover who the guilty party is.

New Pavement Damaged.

The rain of Saturday night and Sunday did considerable damage to the new pavement which was recently laid on California avenue, near the foot of Dunn street. The ground is very sandy and allowed the water to work under the pavement and undermine the gravel beds on which the bricks are laid. Quite a large washout has been made, and if the repairs are not made at once the damage will be considerable.

Mill Pay Made Business.

The portion of the tin mill which has been shut down for the past several days on account of a break in the boilers will probably start up about Wednesday. Saturday was pay day at the mill and a considerable portion of the money paid out was in gold. As a result of the pay business was exceedingly brisk in Chester Saturday evening.

Draining Off the Water.

Street Commissioner Allison has a force of men at work on lower Carolina avenue draining the Conklin and Stevenson lots, which work was ordered done by council at its last meeting. Both of the properties have been badly damaged by water, and it will take considerable work to make the necessary repairs.

Trees Blocked the Road.

Three large trees which stood along the new road recently built through the park fell across the road some time during last night and the vehicles this morning had considerable trouble in getting past. Later in the day the trees were cleared away.

Contract to Be Let.

The contract for the erection of the new livery barn of Arner & Bowers will be let this evening. The contract was to have been let some time ago, but the original location was changed and a complete new set of plans made. Work will probably be started some time this week.

CHESTER NOTES.

Lewis Blankenship is recovering from a severe illness.

Nick Cenally is home from a business trip to Wellsburg.

A. C. Hood, of Columbus, is the guest of his brother Norval, of Louisiana avenue.

Jack Glass will soon move with his family from the Samuel Allison farm to Chester.

Quite a number of Chester people will attend a social at Fairview tomorrow evening.

Foundations are being dug for two new houses to be erected by George H. Owen near the E. M. Knowles pottery.

Allen McDonald and John Marshall have purchased two lots in Lawrenceville on which houses will be built in the near future.

What Tilden Lent.

When Mr. Tilden in 1874 was nominated for governor of New York, Mr. Dorsheimer received the nomination for lieutenant governor. The ticket thus headed was elected by about 50,000 majority. A little knot of Germans in New York city who usually voted the Republican ticket took Mr. Dorsheimer from his name to be a German, and they scratched their ticket in his favor so that he had a majority of nearly 55,000. One day after Mr. Tilden and Mr. Dorsheimer had been inaugurated they met at a political breakfast at the former's house in Gramercy park. Mr. Tilden had always felt a little sore at Mr. Dorsheimer's extra majority, and so when in the current of conversation Mr. Dorsheimer jestingly said, "Well, governor, you must remember I had 55,000 more majority than you," as quick as a flash Mr. Tilden retorted, "Yes, you supplied the 5,000, and I lent you the 49,000."

Interesting Features of Medicine

By George Thomas Palmer, M. D.

V.—What a Glance Tells a Doctor.

THE baldy has always labored under the impression that therapeutics, the application of agencies to cure disease, is the greatest study of the physician. To be sure, it is in this branch of the art that the medical man is of the most practical use to the public, and yet the cure of disease he regards as one of the least attractive and one of the least scientific of the many branches.

To the well trained medical man the fathoming of the processes of Nature and the detection of the cause and the nature of disease are the interesting and important considerations. The means of cure are matters of record and matters of precept, while in each case the diagnosis is a fresh problem capable of solution only by the application of knowledge, keen observation and correct reasoning. The textbook may tell him what to do for any given disease, but he must determine the existence of that disease by the exercise of his own powers.

Sir James Young Simpson.

(One of the first users of chloroform as an anesthetic.)

There may be "born" diagnosticians to whom the secrets of Nature are disclosed through some peculiar inherent quality, but usually the power of diagnosis comes to him who cultivates the faculties common to all intelligent men.

The physician with a glance at your tongue tells you that your digestive tract is disordered, not because he sees it through your open mouth and throat nor yet because he can detect the "baracles upon your liver" through the thickness of your waistcoat. He has learned his lesson from precept and experience.

It is not always the most rapid diagnostician who is best, but "snap" diagnosis is an attractive thing to the patient, and he likes to tell of the powers of the physician who reaches a diagnosis in five seconds without asking a question. Such a diagnosis is often proved false by more deliberate examination, and yet a glance may tell the well trained doctor as much as he could learn in an hour by word of mouth.

The puffiness which we often notice below the eye immediately suggests disease of the heart or kidneys, and fishes in a moment a diagnosis of malaria, while the yellow skin and yellow tinge of the "white of the eye" are immediately set down as jaundice, and the seat of disease is determined to be the liver.

The pigeon chested child, with spirituelle face and fair hair, emaciated and with a bright, quick eye, may be placed under a suspicion of consumption, though such a diagnosis, of course, is not certain.

The child who has a heavy cough, whose face is puffy, whose eyes are watery and whose nose is running can be adjudged, even in the absence of eruption, as a victim of measles, especially where the disease is prevalent and the season favorable, while the marked sore throat and general redness of the skin will cause a diagnosis of scarlet fever at first sight.

The patient who lies on one side, breathing laboriously, with a bright red spot on either cheek is under suspicion of pneumonia, a diagnosis verified if the doctor has seen the blood stained sputum in the vessel at the bedside.

The patient who while very ill must be bolstered up by many pillows that he may breathe with freedom is suffering from some heart trouble.

So we see that the doctor has many well marked signs which make diagnosis at a glance in many cases a very easy matter and a knowledge of which deprives the art of much that otherwise would seem almost superhuman. Aside from the diagnosis of actual disease, there is much that a single look can teach the doctor of the social status, manner of life and habits of him who solicits professional aid, and these things all go up and to proper diagnosis and proper treatment.

Sir Frederick Treves.
(Who performed the operation on King Edward.)

The soft, white hands of the fat and well groomed man, together with his high color on slight exertion, tell of a sedentary life, with liberal diet, so often productive of poor elimination and consequent rheumatism, gout and kidney troubles, while the unsteady hand, flushed face and shabby or careless attire of the alcoholic bespeak a liability to nervous disorder, to kidney disease and pneumonia.

The face, hands and quick, rea-

SEVEN TO ONE

Sometimes the weight goes up that way when taking Scott's Emulsion. Seven pounds of new, healthy flesh from a one pound bottle of Scott's Emulsion is on record.

Scott's Emulsion brings everything to its aid; good appetite, strong digestion, rich blood, new body strength, and above all the power to get all the good out of ordinary food.

For those who are in need of more flesh there is nothing better. Thin folks—try it!

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York.

sonless movements of a child tell of a highly organized nervous constitution which may give way under strain to St. Vitus' dance, epilepsy or a kindred nervous disease. The stained fingers betray the constant cigarette smoker and the tobacco laden breath him who smokes too much. The tanned face, the calloused hand and wrinkles are indicative of hard labor and battles with the elements.

It is these things, coupled with the story of the patient or of his friends which go to make the diagnosis. A few striking symptoms simultaneously discovered by the quick sight of the doctor will at once justify the diagnosis.

It is the power of the physician to observe minute detail, to put two and two together and to learn a lesson from each symptom which makes the diagnostician. There is no special gift which makes one capable of the determination of the character of disease.

Diagnosis is the natural faculty of him who has a comprehensive glance and a logical mind, together with ample knowledge of medical facts. It is the one respect in which the physician may exhibit the skill which makes him greater than his fellows, and it is but natural that it is the standard by which a man's place in the profession is measured.

The Army Baby's Peril.

The following story is told of an incident that occurred when the full blown rank of the army doctor was still a novelty. The wife of Captain de Smythe, whose baby was in the throes of teething, wrote to the garrison doctor as follows:

Dear Dr. Philgrave—I should be glad if you could come round and see my baby this afternoon, as the poor darling is having a good deal of trouble with his teeth. Yours very truly,

ANGELINA DE SMYTHE.

P. S.—Please bring your lancet.

She received in reply the following letter:

Colonel Philgrave presents his compliments to Mrs. de Smythe and begs to inform her that he cannot regard any communication addressed to Dr. Philgrave as intended for himself.

Whereupon the lady, meekly accepting the rebuke of her breach of etiquette, sat down and wrote her letter, word for word, over again, but beginning "Dear Colonel Philgrave." When, however, she arrived at the postscript, she felt a certain amount of delicacy about mentioning anything so essentially unimilitary as a lancet, and so when the gallant colonel received the revised note he found that the P. S. ran, "Please bring your sword."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Divine Shooting.

We doubt if any repartee ever surpassed in delicacy the reply made by an East Indian servant of Lord Dufferin when he was viceroys of India. "Well, what sort of sport has Lord Blank had?" said Dufferin one day to his "shikarry" or sporting servant, who had attended a young English lord on a shooting excursion.
"Oh," replied the scrupulously polite Hindoo, "the young sahib shot divinely, but God was very merciful to the birds."—Forest and Stream.

BOWSER AS A BUYER

He Attends a "Marked Down" Sale and Secures Some Great Bargains

(Copyright, 1902, by C. B. Lewis.)

WHEN dinner was over the other evening in the Bowser mansion, Mr. Bowser slipped out of the sitting room for three or four minutes and returned with a package that he had hidden away when he came in.

"What is it, dear?" asked Mrs. Bowser as he stood before her with a fatherly smile on his face.

"You may guess," he playfully replied.

"But how can I? Is it something for me?"

"My dear woman, I want to talk to you for a few minutes. Like all other wives, you do considerable shopping."

"Kind be hanged!" roared Mr. Bowser. "You flatter yourself that you are a close buyer. Almost every day you come home to brag of the bargains you have made."

"Yes, I think I do pick up some bargains now and then."

"You think so, and not wishing to hurt your feelings, I have said nothing about it, not even when I knew you had paid full price for things. As a matter of fact, you have been swindled on most occasions."

"Where you would have made great bargains?" she sarcastically queried, but smiling all the time.

"Exactly, my dear, exactly. I know the value of things ten times better than you do. Any husband is a better buyer than his wife. It stands to reason that he is."

"You might know more about shavers and grindstones than I do."

"And about everything else, as I shall shortly prove to you. It may surprise you to learn that I have spent the afternoon in attending bargain sales at the dry goods stores. I had a double object in view—first, I knew you needed several things for your wardrobe, and, second, I wanted to show you that I could buy to better advantage than you could."

"Well, I hope you have. Let's see what you have."

"The first thing that appears to our gaze," said Mr. Bowser as he broke the string securing the package, "is a pair of white gloves. Examine them, and you will find that they are the regular $1.50 glove, and yet I got them for 50 cents. I challenge you to say that you ever bought as good a pair for the money. Right here is a saving of 50 cents, and it is only the beginning."

"Anything wrong with them?"

"No," reluctantly replied Mrs. Bowser as she turned them over and over.

"But you don't seem pleased."

"Well, you see they are No. 8's, and my size is only 6. You didn't think of that, you know."

"H'm. I don't see how that will make any difference. However, if they are a little too large, you can wet them and cause a shrinkage. It's all bosh to number gloves anyhow."

"I now call your attention to two pairs of brown silk stockings. The regular price is $2.50 per pair, but I got them for $1.75. Here is a saving of $1.50. I'll bet you never made such a bargain in your whole life."

"No, I didn't," admitted Mrs. Bowser with a sigh. "The only trouble is—"

"Trouble? Why should there be any trouble?"

"Because I never wear brown stockings and because these are No. 10."

"But what has color to do with it?" persisted Mr. Bowser as he flushed up.

"Nothing perhaps, but they are a size and a half too large, and I can never wear them. It was owing to their size that you got them so cheap. If you had only known—"

"I know that those stockings are all right and the biggest bargain on earth," he interrupted. "After being washed twice they will probably be too small for you. I expect you will also find fault with the next purchase, which is a regular six dollar shirt waist reduced to $4.50. Here is another saving of $1.50, and what have you got to say about it? Is that a size and a half too large?"

"No, dear, but—"

"But what? Out with it."

"It happens to be two sizes too small for me. This is 32, while I wear 36. It was awfully good of you to think of buying me a shirt waist, and I presume I can exchange it."

"And wasn't it a bargain for $4.50?"

"I think it was."

"I'm. This is the thanks I get for running around for half a day. Here is a remnant of blue velvet I got to make you a dress waist of. I heard you saying you wanted something of the sort. The regular price was 65 cents a yard, but it was marked down to 47. Is it a bargain or not?"

"I'm rather sorry you got it," replied Mrs. Bowser, who wanted to spare his feelings and yet felt obliged to answer his question. "It's blue, and I can't wear blue, and it's what they call cotton backed. I'll try to exchange it, however, and I thank you very much."

"Oh, you do!" sneered Mr. Bowser, as he stood off and looked at her. "You can bet your boots I won't make a fool of myself again. Here I have saved you hundreds of dollars, but nothing suits."

"This is the last purchase—half a dozen handkerchiefs—and perhaps you'll say I paid too much for them. The regular price all over the world is 75 cents, but on this occasion it was reduced to 48."

"They are very good," said Mrs. Bowser as she examined them.

"But you are not overpleased. You could have done better."

"Well, they are about the same as the

AN IMPRESSIVE MEMORIAL SERVICE

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS HONOR GEORGE DE TEMPLE DEAD.

Fitting Ceremonies in Which Members of the Order Took Part Yesterday.

The memorial services held yesterday afternoon by the Knights of Columbus for the late George De Temple were beautiful and impressive. De signed, as they were, to perpetuate the name of the departed comrade, the services will be long remembered by those in attendance. There was silence in the great hall when Secretary Robert Wheatley, calling the roll, came to the name of George De Temple. Three times the name was called and then came the response, "Absent."

The service was opened with a piano voluntary by Miss Elizabeth Hamill. The St. Aloysius' choir then sang the chorus from Gounod's "Miserere." Miss Kate McKeever then sang a beautiful solo and Grand Knight James H. Grafton delivered the opening address. He said in part:

"The name of our beloved brother has been called and we vainly await an answer, but another has responded in his stead. This absence means death. The death angel has called and he is gone from among us. The mother church had told him that some day he would be called, and he had prepared for the time. He will not return and we will know him no more. We meet here this evening to commemorate his memory. He has gone to accept a crown of glory and the consolation is sweet that in heaven we will know our own."

"Comfort ye my people," was a tenor solo beautifully rendered by A. A. Taylor, after which District Deputy Thomas J. Duffy delivered the principal address of the service. He said in part:

"The angel did not look over our list and choose one who had worn out life. He touched one in the morning of life, wrapped his cloak about him and smothered life as a flower is withered by the blast of winter. Only a short time ago we were called together on a similar occasion, and he whom we mourn today was in our midst. Little did he think that he would be the next to go. As we think of these things we can realize the words: 'The leaves have a time to fall, the flowers to wither and the sun to set, but thou hast thine own time, O Death.'"

"It is with the purpose of helping us to avoid the errors of life that we dwell on the character of the one for whom we mourn tonight. He possessed both ambition and ability and had he lived he would have made a shining mark in this world. While he was ambitious he did not forget his God, and while he wished for the good things of this world it was also his wish to gain them and still be an influence for good. We regret that he has gone from us, but he has gone to his reward."

A Valentine Party.

Miss Rachel Newell entertained eleven of her friends at an elaborate 6 o'clock dinner on Saturday evening. The event was a valentine party and will long be remembered. The decorations were very beautiful, being hearts in every possible design, and the arrangement of the table was also unique and pretty. The game of "Unweaving" was played and was one of the enjoyable features of the evening.

AN EXPERIENCED MAN

Is the Sort Needed in Council—A Tax-Payer's Pertinent Words.

The government of our city under the new code invests in the council, certain powers that makes the office one of responsibility. In order that we get the best results for the general public, we should elect men who have had experience with the affairs of the city. In my opinion it is not a time to try out new material, but we must elect a man who knows just where to begin, and is able in every way to take up the work and carry it forward in a satisfactory manner. As a taxpayer, and a man of experience it is my opinion the people of this community would make no mistake in placing D. M. McLane in the council. FOURTH WARDER. 39-h

Administration Pleased With Legislation Affecting the Trusts.

CONCISE AND COMPREHENSIVE.

Department of Commerce Has Complete Authority to Investigate Methods—Attorney General Knox Expresses His Views.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Attorney General Knox, who is known to have prepared the important features of the anti-trust bills now enacted into laws, on being asked as to how they were regarded by the administration, said:

"The legislation affecting the trusts passed at this session of congress is satisfactory to the administration, and the prompt response to the president's requests is highly gratifying. A very long stride in advance has been accomplished and the promises of last fall have been made good."

"The giving and taking of railroad rebates is now prohibited by a law capable of effective enforcement against corporations as well as individuals, and the courts of the United States are clothed with jurisdiction to restrain and punish violations."

"The act creating the department of commerce vests in that department complete authority to investigate the organization and business methods of corporations engaged in interstate and foreign commerce and to that end to compel the testimony of persons having the desired knowledge. The legislation is concise in its terms, but very comprehensive in its scope. Under its provisions a fair opportunity will be afforded to test the effect upon the tendency towards industrial monopoly of its guarantees of no favors for the great producer as against the small one."

"Discretion is lodged in the president as to the publication of facts to be publicly known and a wise administration of the law promises much that is helpful and nothing that is harmful."

"The law to expedite the hearing of cases and giving an appeal directly to the supreme court from the court of first instance assures within a reasonable time authoritative decisions upon important pending questions in the knowledge of which future legislation, if necessary, can be confidently framed."

"Upon the whole, the situation is eminently satisfactory and is the result of concessions, modifications of views and forms of expressions upon the part of many earnest and thoughtful men, who have endeavored within a very brief session to meet a rational public demand in a rational and effective way."

Didn't Like the New Way

When civilization reached Pine Hill City, a bank was established, and one of the first customers was old man Johnson. A few days later he wanted money and entered the place with a gun in his hand.

"Want some money today?" queried the president. "Well, it's ready for you."

"Say, I don't understand," exclaimed the old man as he backed off. "I'm here to hold this bank up for $30."

"But you don't have to. Just sign this check, and I'll hand over your money."

"And I don't yell or shoot?"

"No."

"And the sheriff don't come after me?"

"No. Put your name to this."

"I can't do it—can't do it, nohow," said the old man, with a choke in his voice. "If that's the new way of doing things, I'm out of it. I want my money, but I want it in the old way."

"Well, have it in the old way, then."

The old man tramped forward to the cashier's window, rested the muzzle of his gun on the ledge and yelled out: "Come down or you are a dead man!"

"Certainly. Here's thirty."

"And—and is that all there is to it?"

"That's all."

"Then I'll be hanged if I want it," he said, and he threw the money back and went outdoors and sat down on a barrel of sugar in front of a grocery and shed tears.

Naturally.

As a gentleman was stepping from his carriage in Harrisburg to take the train for Philadelphia his coachman said, "The oats are getting low, sir."

"Very well," said the gentleman. "You telephone Miller & Jones to send up some."

Mike went to the telephone, when the following conversation took place: "Is this Miller & Jones?"

"Yes."

"Well, you send up six bags of oats, and hurry up with 'em."

"All right. Who are they for?"

"Arrah, now, don't you get gay—for the horses, to be sure." And Mike rang off.—Philadelphia Ledger.
